

P.I. Livestock Exposition to offer many activities

Some of the Pacific Northwest's best beef, pork and mutton on the hoof will be on public auction October 13 when the 4-H-FFA Blue Ribbon Livestock Sale is held at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland. Exposition dates are October 10 through 17.

The auction offers a chance for the public to purchase a prize-winning market animal, and support the FFA and 4-H Club agricultural programs at the same time, according to Greg Look, Arena Activities Manager for the Exposition.

The top two animals in each class in the FFA and 4-H divisions of the exposition will be sold at the Blue Ribbon Auction, Look said. All are top quality market animals. About 125 animals in all will be sold.

Purchasers may take the animals with them, assign them to a firm for butchering and packaging, or sell them at a pre-arranged support price to a major packing company. The support price is set by agreement between the P.I. and the packing company, Look said.

The auction is a great opportunity for friends or supporters of the 4-H and FFA programs to support the individual members, Look said. The funds received from the sale helps the students to finance future projects. The higher the bid, the more help for the seller.

Bidders need not keep the animals, Look said. The packing company will take any animals at a pre-arranged support price. If the bid price is higher, the bidder need pay only the difference between the bid and support prices. "It can be looked at as a donation to the student, or as a form of advertising," Look pointed out. "The bidder gets some publicity and at the same time supports a quality youth program," he continued.

The Blue Ribbon Auction will be held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, October 13, after completion of the 4-H and FFA showing and judging events.

The auction is one of five sales at the P.I. this year. The Oregon Angus Sale is at 3 p.m., October 11. The Northwest Pinzgauer Sale is at 7 p.m., October 12. Two sales are scheduled for October 18 - the Oregon - Washington Simmental Sale at 2:30 p.m. and the Pride of the Northwest All Breeds Sheep Sale at 3 p.m. All cattle sales are in the Sales Tent. The sheep sale is in the Sheep Show tent.

While the Blue Ribbon Auction is for market animals, the other sales are for breeding animals, Look said.

A wide variety of activities will be going on at the Exposition, in addition to the animal showing and sales, Look noted. There will be daily horse show and rodeo performances, sheep dog trials, the Great Northwest Chili Cook-off, country-western bands, a country-western dance contest, a pancake breakfast, a chuckwagon breakfast and an old-fashioned Christian rally.

Admission to the P.I. is $3 for adults, $1 for children six through 12. Children under six are admitted free and senior citizens will be admitted free on weekday afternoons from 1 to 5. Children six through 12 will be admitted free with a Quick Draw Charlie coloring cartoon if they are accompanied by a full paid adult admission.

The doors open at 11 a.m. Saturday and Sunday, and 1 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Exposition closes at 11 p.m. nightly.
