• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

Lexington Grange met on Monday, Oct. 19 for a regular meeting with the Master Delpha Jones in the chair. Plans were discussed for Pamona Grange, held there Sat., Oct. 24, and plans were discussed for the Blue Mountain Fiddlers concert and Stew Supper to be held there Sat., Nov. 21, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Blue Mountain Fiddler's admission will be $4 for the evening or entertainment only $2. This meeting is open to the public.

Following the regular business of the evening an election of officers was held with the following elected: Master, Delpha Jones; Overseer, Lyle Peck; Chaplain, Marie Steagall; Steward, Earl Papineau;

Genealogy workshop set Nov. 4

A special information workshop on genealogy will be held Saturday, Nov. 14, in the Lexington board room from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. The workshop is sponsored by Blue Mountain Community College.

The one-day program will deal with the steps necessary to set up a family search including: how to begin the search, necessary forms, the file systems used, the correspondence needed and the cost. Instructor will be Betty Kimball who currently teaches a genealogy course for BMCC in Pendleton.

The cost of the one-credit course is $13. Persons interested in registration details should contact Nancy Brownfield, BMCC south Morrow County area coordinator, at 676-5039.

If there is enough interest shown, as a result of the workshop, a full-scale genealogy class will be scheduled in the area at a later date, according to Nancy Brownfield.

Local woman chosen to varsity team

Margaret Kincaid, 1981 Heppner High School graduate, is one of three freshmen at Eastern Oregon State College on the colleges varsity volleyball team.

The Mounties have eight returning lettermen combining with the three freshmen to round out the team. Coach Jean Neely said, "The team is much stronger than last year and we hope to better their 14-14 record."

Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid.

Reserve table space now for Artifactory

By MARY ANN CERULLO

Area artists and craftsmen are encouraged to reserve table space to take part in the tenth annual AAUW sponsored Artifactory. This year's art fair will be held December 5 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner.

Individuals and groups with handcrafted items or baked goods to sell may make reservations now by calling Bonnie Templeman, 676-5187; Susan Schubothe, 676-5282; or Joan Records at 676-5260.

Callers are asked to phone between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

NHS to sponsor haunted house

Heppner High School National Honor Society will sponsor a haunted house, Halloween night, Oct. 31, 6-9 p.m. at the Donna Bergstrom residence, 180 S. Chase St. in Heppner. Everyone is invited to attend free of charge.

Gatekeeper, Glover Peck, Assistant Steward, Kenneth Smouse, L.A.S., Frances Smouse, Lecturer, Barbara

Cutsforth, Ceres, Charlene Papineau, Paomona, Virginia Peck; Flora Rena Marquardt; Executive Committee: Alfred Nelson, O.W. Cutsforth and Joyce Buchanan.

It was announced that the installation of Pamona and subordinate officers will be held Dec. 13 at the Lexington Grange hall with the Umatilla installing team present.

Preceding the meeting the grangers enjoyed a lovely potluck dinner under the committee of Marie Steagall and Venice Hendrickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth and Eula Bloodsworth motored to Portland on Saturday where they saw Barbara Anderson and three children off to Davao City, Philippines where they will join Mr. Anderson who is already employed there. The Andersons have made their home during the past several years in Umatilla County, coming from the Philippines where he was employed with a pineapple company.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck and Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones were Joseph visitors on Sunday where they attended the reception honoring Una Makin, the Rebekah Assembly warden. The rooms were cleverly decorated in the western theme with a large teepee as the center of attraction. Members came in very clever western and Indian attire. Following a fun filled afternoon the group enjoyed pie and coffee before departing for home. Mrs. Peck is the ISG of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon for the year 1981.
