Installation of 1982 subordinate and Pomona granges was held at the Lexington Grange Hall on Sunday. The team from Umatilla County, under the leadership of Morton Wolverton did the installing. There were about 73 people present for the day. Present from Umatilla County were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, she acting as musician. Also present were Mr. Thorpe, master of the Columbia Grange; Polly VanDebreake, Morton Wolverton and Freda Wolverton of Columbia Grange; Rose Sykes, the Rev. Calvin Rittenhouse, Tom Campbell, and Wilhemina Campbell of Cold Springs Grange; Elsa McElrath, Claude McElrath and Ethel Huffman, of State Line Grange. Following the installation a lovely potluck dinner was enjoyed. The tables were beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme. In charge of serving the dinner were Charlene Papineau and Josie Peck, assisted by grange members. There were grangers present from Rufus, Mikkalo, Greenfield, Rhea Creek, Willows, Lexington and Wheatland Pomona Granges. Masters of the subordinate granges were introduced, as were guests from other counties.

Myrtle Marshall is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Leita Messenger had the misfortune to fall and break an arm, and is confined to her home.

The Committee on Women's activities met at the Cecil Jones home on Tuesday for a regular meeting and Christmas get-together. They began with a business meeting at 10:30 a.m. which was followed by a potluck dinner. In the afternoon, the committee made plans for the coming year's activities and enjoyed visiting. The card party for January was discussed. It will be held Saturday evening, at 8 p.m. at the grange hall with Josie Peck and Charlene Papineau in charge. There will be prizes and refreshments. The door prize was won by Marie Steagall. Those present were Josie Peck, Charlene Papineau, Virginia Peck, Jean Nelson, Joyce Buchanan, Rena Marquardt, Marie Steagall and Delpha Jones.

Mrs. Kenneth Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau were visitors at the Willows Grange meeting where Mr. and Mrs. Howard were welcomed into the grange. They will be members of Lexington 726.

A lovely bridal shower was held at the Pat Wright home on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 12, honoring Susie Johnson.

bride elect of Mark Wright. Games were played with Alice Majeske, Rena Marquardt, and Julie Wattenburger winning prizes. Mrs. Wright's home was beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme. Following the opening of gifts, lovely refreshments were served. The cake was pink with two white hearts with the names "Mark" and "Susie" centered on each. The cake was served with coffee and punch.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Ginger O'Brien, Joyce Hughes and Betty Marquardt. Friends were happy to hear that Orville Cutsforth, who recently underwent major surgery at Providence Hospital in Seattle, is reported to be doing well and will soon start therapy.

returned to their home Sunday evening, Dec. 13. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan motored to Crescent on Saturday where Mr. Buchanan gave his daughter, Ellen, in marriage to Frank Stevens at the Community Church in that city. There was a lovely reception following the ceremony in the church social rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan then motored to Portland where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Vinson of Heppner and all attended the Ice Follies. The group returned home on Monday, Dec. 14. The Three Links Club met at the Cecil Jones ranch on Thursday for a regular meeting. After a short business meeting the group enjoyed visiting and opened the exchanged gifts and Secret

Sister gifts. The rooms were decorated for the holiday season, and refreshments were served following the meeting. The door prize was won by Virginia Peck. Those attending were: Irene Padberg, Dorothy Burcham, Ruth Robinson, Eula Bloodsworth, Leila Palmer, a guest Annetta Padberg and the hostess Delpha Jones. Cards were sent to shut in members.
