Delpha Jones • 989-8189

The residents of Lexington would like to thank those responsible for the fine Christmas tree and decorations at city hall and to all those who took the time to decorate their homes, and the streets to give the city of Lexington a festive look.

Several local citizens had the misfortune to be in hospitals during the holidays. Floyd Borman the city of Lexington's maintenance man is in St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland, having undergone major heart surgery. Kenneth Peck is a patient in Good Samaritan Hospital. Beecher Emert of Ione is also in a Portland hospital, having undergone major heart surgery. Mr. Emert was taken to Portland by his niece Mary Kilkenny.

Lexington Grange held a regular meeting on Monday evening, starting with a turkey potluck dinner, followed by a shower for the grange kitchen. State officers were nominated and the business of the evening followed. An auditing committee consisting of Kenneth Smouse, Lyle Peck and Gene Majeske was appointed, and it was announced that the supper committee for the January meeting will include men of the grange with Lyle Peck, Norman Nelson and Cecil Jones in charge. Pins were presented to Philip and Doug Marquardt and Josie and Glover Peck. Plans were discussed by the building committee to work during cold winter days on the inside of the grange building. Carols led by Rena Marquardt were sung and special music was provided by Philip Marquardt and Doug Marquardt. A reading was given by Charlene Papineau. A game, "What you got for Christmas last year," was played and the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan spent the Christmas holidays in the Portland area.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum were Pendleton visitors on Saturday where they attended a program at a school for preschoolers and watched their small granddaughter perform. They also visited with their daughters Debbie Jones and family and Marie.

Holly Rebekah Lodge enjoyed a potluck dinner including turkey and dressing with members and friends on Thursday evening. Following the dinner, there were treats for the children of popcorn balls and candy canes, and the members and guests enjoyed pinochle. There were five tables present.

The card party at the Lexington Grange Hall on Dec. 19 was well attended. There were prizes given and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mounts and children of Boardman and Mr. and Mrs. W. Wright of Woodburn were among those from out of town to attend the Wright-Johnson wedding.

Vicky Bowen and children of Hermiston visited on Saturday at the C.C. Jones home with Charlene Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Whitney and Jessie and Frank Wilcox.

Franklin Messenger and children of Springfield visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger Sr. over the holidays. Visiting on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Connor and family of Heppner.

On Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Hughes entertained the families of Betty Marquardt, and Majo Hughes with a dinner. Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Messenger and Franklin and family visited at the Hughes home.

Norita, Charma, Doug and Philip Marquardt and Paula Martin of Oregon City were Christmas visitors at the Bill B. Marquardt home.

Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Ruhl had the following guests over the holidays: Mable Gray and

Florence of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Ruhl and family of Hermiston, Dick Ruhl and son Rick of Roseburg, Fran Wong of Portland and John Robertson and Mario Vala of Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Campbell had the following Christmas guests: Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Nash of Pendleton, Dave Campbell of LaGrande, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bloodworth and family of Hermiston, and Eula Bloodworth of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg had as Christmas visitors, daughter Jill Perkins and her son, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Padberg and children and Katie Padberg, Lee's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Burke O'Brien of Heppner entertained the following on Christmas Day: Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske of Lexington and brother Don of Deer Park; Freda Majeske, Pat Wright and Sandi; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall; and

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wright of Woodburn, who were visiting at the Pat Wright home.

A surprise birthday party was enjoyed by Delpha Jones on Tuesday evening when several of her friends surprised her with a birthday dinner and an evening of visiting at the Dodge City Restaurant in Boardman. Those attending were Linda and Kenneth Jones, Charles and Joyce Buchanan, George Irvin, Lyle and Virginia Peck, Josie and Glover Peck and Cecil Jones, Delpha's husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover Peck were delightfully surprised when their daughter Martha and husband Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ward and three children along with Mike Peck who makes his home with them, arrived from Juneau, Alaska for a Christmas visit. Other members of the family present during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tucker of Salem, Bill Peck of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck, and Dennis Peck and fiancée Debbie of Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Peck returned home on Monday from a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hawk of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall and daughter Jodi, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Holliday and sons of Portland and Elmer Pieper of Hermiston were dinner guests of Erda Pieper on Christmas Day. Arriving on Sunday for a visit were Diana Brennen and Brenna, and Gary Dick, who will remain for a short visit.
