Delpha Jones 989-8189

Graveside services were held recently at Highview Cemetery, Ione for Elmo McMillan, who recently passed away in Portland. Mr. McMillan was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. McMillan of Lexington. They were early pioneers to the area. Elmo was born in Lexington in 1906 and graduated from high school in 1925. He married Eleanor Swanson of Ione, daughter of Emil and Mary Swanson who were also pioneer settlers of the Ione area. Mrs. McMillan preceded him in death.

He was once manager and owner of the Ace Restaurant in Salem and was affiliated with the Deluxe Ice Cream Company.

He was a lifetime member of Salem Elks Lodge 3336, Pacific Mason Lodge 350, Scottish Rite and a member of the Knight Memorial Church of Christ in Salem.

He leaves a daughter, Beverly Ramsey and one granddaughter of San Rafael, California; two brothers, Lowell of Woodburn and John R. of McMinnville; a sister Donna McMillan Ritchie of Salem; nieces and nephews and a host of friends in the Salem area and in Morrow County.

Memorial contributions may be made to the cancer society.

Lexington Grange met for a regular meeting on Monday evening. The evening began with a pancake and ham supper, cooked and served by

Road Report

The Morrow County Public Works Department has released the following Work Report for the week ending January 23:

Rotten mud sills were replaced with steel beams on the Clarks Canyon Bridge.

Culverts and ditches were cleaned on many county roads.

Upper Rhea Creek Road, Don Turner and Baker E.W. roads were patched with cold mix.

Roads bladed were No. 531, No. 549, Palmateer, Fourmile to Cecil, Morgan East, N.S. Morgan and Johnson Grade roads.

In the Boardman-Irrigon area, potholes were patched with cold mix on the following roads: No. 906, First, Eighth, Pole Line, Frontage, Idaho, Homestead, Washington, Irrigon Ordinance, and Boardman Irrigon roads. Curve signs were reset on Root Lane and Frontage roads.
