Legal Survival Series slated

The Pendleton Office of Legal Aid will be delivering a set of presentations they have dubbed a "Legal Survival Series." This will be a series of public sessions to inform low income people as to their rights and obligations under various aspects of the law, stated a news release from Oregon Legal Services Corporation.

The Legal Aid Office will be making an afternoon and an evening presentation of each topic in each location. The afternoon sessions will be held at 1 p.m. and the evening sessions will be held at 7:30 p.m. Public Entitlement sessions will be held at Far West Federal Savings in Pendleton on February 3, at McLoughlin High School in Milton-Freewater on February 10, and at the Community Recreation Center in Hermiston on February 17.

The Landlord-Tenant sessions will be held at the office of the Headstart program in Pendleton on February 24, at McLoughlin High School in Milton-Freewater on March 3, and at the Community Recreation Center in Hermiston on March 10.

The Domestic Violence session will be held at the Headstart Office in Pendleton on March 17 at McLoughlin High School in Milton-Freewater on March 24, and at the Community Recreation Center in Hermiston on March 31.

The Energy program will be presented on April 7 at the Headstart office in Pendleton, at McLoughlin High School in Milton-Freewater on April 21 and at the Community Recreation Center in Hermiston on April 14.

Cards of Thanks 1

We wish to thank everyone for their cards, flowers, food, contributions and sympathy at the time of our loss of our Dear Ann. It's impossible to name everyone but a special "thank you" to Dr. Gifford, Pastor John Maas, Pat Sweeney, the Pioneer Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home staff, the ladies of Valby Lutheran Church and our many friends and neighbors.

R.W. Bergstrom

Words cannot express our deep appreciation and gratitude for the wonderful friends and relatives who gave their support and help in many different ways during our time of sorrow. God Bless all of you!
