

Weddings Bailey - Hollomon

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bailey

Kaedene Hollomon, daughter of Jerry and Joyce Kay Hollomon of Heppner and Kenneth Bailey, son of Dwight and Janelle Bailey, also of Heppner, were married Saturday, February 6 at the United Methodist Church in Heppner with the Rev. Mike Sheridan officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown, made and worn by her mother, of moire taffeta with additions of unembroidered lace overlays on the bodice and train. Her long illusion net veil, also made by her mother, was edged in lace. Her underslip was trimmed in cotton lace which was handmade and worn by her great-grandmother, Effie Peterson at her wedding. She carried her mother's Bible which was adorned with two white orchids and forget-me-nots.

Darcy Hollomon, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Bonnie Nix, Heppner and Barbara Devine of Pendleton were bridesmaids. Nancy Bailey, sister of the groom was flower girl and Mark Moeller, Heppner, was ring bearer. Jess Osmin and Rick Osmin were candle lighters. Bridesmaids wore burgundy full length dresses and floral chiffon capes. The maid of honor and flower girl wore pink full length dresses with floral chiffon capes.

Best man was Chris Zita of Heppner. Ushers were Jeff Bailey, brother of the groom and Doug Dougherty of Wallowa.

Wedding music was provided by Marty Baker and Tim Hedman, both of Heppner. Accompanist was Carley Drake, also of Heppner.

A wedding reception at the American Legion Hall followed the ceremony.

Attending the gift table were Cinda Watt and Linda Hollomon, cousins of the bride, both of Hermiston. Rhonda Quigley of Heppner attended the guest book.

Honored guests were the bride's great-grandmother, Hazel Harges, Portland, her grandmother, Lois Hollomon of Milton Freewater; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schroeder, Arizona; and the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey of Heppner.

The couple, both graduates of Heppner High School, and he of Blue Mt. Community College, reside in the Butter Creek area where Ken is farming with his father. Kaedene is employed at Freddie's salon in Hermiston.

Variety Show plays to good attendance Thurs.

By JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

Thursday evening, March 18, the Ackley Scholarship Variety Stage Show played to a good attendance on the stage of Heppner High School.

Jim Ackley and a group of the school's talented youth performed an interesting variety of acts, sang popular songs, spoofed several TV shows and were rewarded by a laughing, pleased audience and, hopefully, a substantial contribution to the scholarship awards known as the Bill Kenny Music Education Award and the Bonnie Nix - John Bier Outstanding Service Award which are presented to deserving graduating seniors at the end of the school year. Ackley hopes to help achieve $1,000 for these awards.

The variety show began with the Ackley composition "A New Beginning" which was sung to recorded accompaniment. Then there was a spoof of TV announced as "Corporal Hospital" (downgrading of General Hospital) which saw Ackley as Dr. John. Marti Baker and Karen Kenny sang several times with Ackley and performed a duet novelty "Ride 'Em Cowboy." Ackley as an anchorman revealed several astounding news items about Heppner High. Several vocal items were presented as solo, duet and trio arrangements and a second take-off of a TV soap was "Fort Worth" instead of "Dallas".

During one musical number, "Moonlight Becomes You," a threesome of big, beautiful, female impersonators, Damon Wilson, Greg Orr and Tom Huston, added background excitement. When the entertaining variety acts were ended with an everybody-on-stage finale, producer-performer Ackley made a sincere plea for community support of scholarship efforts.

Sign Language to be offered from BMCC

Beginning Sign Language will be added to the listing of spring term classes scheduled for the south Morrow County area, according to Nancy Brownfield, Blue Mountain Community College class coordinator for the Heppner area.

The class will begin Wednesday, March 31, at the Lexington School boardroom. The ten week class will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. at a cost of $26. Carol Faith will be the instructor.

Sign language will be taught both to interested members of the public and to school teachers who use it in their classrooms in this new course, said a BMCC spokeswoman. There is no class enrollment limit, she continued.

Those interested in signing up for the class should call Mrs. Brownfield at 676-5039 or attend the first class meeting.

Book now available

A reprint edition of "Leitrim Donegal Vanguard" by Edward M. Kenny is now available at Murray's Drug Store, the Heppner Library and from Wm. J. Kenny, 265 Baltimore St., in Heppner.

Friendship Baptist to relocate Sun., April 4
