Delpha Jones 989-8189

Following a bountiful potluck dinner on Monday evening, the Lexington Grange enjoyed an interesting and fun filled time. Present for the evening was distinguished guest and speaker of the evening, Mildred Norman. Norman is past state grange secretary and is presently secretary to W.C. Harris, state master. Mrs. Norman and honored guest Martha Baker, master of Greenfield Grange were introduced and welcomed.

The first number on the program was a musical selection by Betty Marquardt and daughters, followed by a presentation of golden year pins for service to the grange for 50 years. These were presented by Mrs. Norman to Kenneth Smouse, O.W. Cutsforth, and Norman Nelson. She gave a short review on activities of the grange in 1982. The master of Lexington Grange in 1982 was Joe Devine and he and his wife were the first delegates to the Oregon State Grange. Mrs. Norman reported that 1982 was a busy year, with many resolutions before the body. She reported that Minnie McFarland, a county resident, took a definite stand on a power bill concerning the building of dams on area rivers and the use of power. McFarland also served on the state board.

Twenty five certificates and pins were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones, Jean Nelson, Frances Smouse, Barbara Cutsforth and Wavel Wilkinson. Wilkinson has been a member of the Lexington Grange for 47 years. Others were eligible, but unable to attend.

The legislative committee chairman reported on the grazing or B.L.M. grazing land, the spraying of the tussock moth, and a petition that is being circulated concerning abolishing the L.C.D.C.

The resolution committee includes Charles Buchanan, Lyle Peck and Alfred Nelson Jr. In the absence of one of the members, Joe Yocom consented to fill in for this meeting.

A request to work for the improvement of additional acres in the Cutsforth Park area was discussed and a resolution will soon be prepared to be sent to county court.

Mrs. Baker, master of Greenfield was introduced and read a most interesting article recently printed in the "Tri-City Herald" concerning a long time resident of Boardman, Anna Skoubo Warren. Warren came to Boardman in 1917 and has spent most of her life there. The article states that a new kind of entertainment was introduced to Boardman in 1919 - the telephone, and that there were 18 homes on their party line.

Visiting with Mrs. Norman from the Portland area was Alga Nelson, past editor of the grange bulletin. Greenfield guests were Art and Marie White, Don Baker and Edna Melby.

Mrs. Norman also gave instruction on flag presentation.

Joe Yocom reported on a trap shoot to be held in June with the grange furnishing refreshments and cards.

The bus for the trip to Burns, sponsored by the Historical Society, is quickly filling up. Anyone still wanting to reserve space should do so soon.

Several members of Holly Rebekah Lodge motored to Hermiston on Saturday where they and other P.N.G. clubs were entertained by the Simbean Rebekah Lodge P.N.G. Club. A lovely buffet dinner was enjoyed, after which children danced for the group and old time fiddling and piano playing was greatly enjoyed. Motoring from Lexington were Leila Palmer, Dorothy Burcham, Cattie Padberf, Eula Bloodsworth, Virginia Peck, Joyce Buchanan, Hilda Yocom, Ruth Robinson and Delpha Jones. Holly Lodge will be entertaining this group May 5 at 12:30 a.m. at the Rebekah Hall in Lexington.

Peg VanLeuven of La-

Grande and Enid Stambach of Haines spent several days visiting at the C.C. Jones ranch last week. Invitations for the Gikison Cousins Picnic to be held in August at the beach home of Charlene Whitner near Depoe Bay were printed for mailing. Mr. Jones is chairman and Mrs. Van Leuven, sec. for 1982. On Friday they and Mrs. Peck motored to Hermiston where they joined Florence McMillan and Valda Smith to enjoy a birthday dinner, honoring Mrs. McMillan on her 83rd birthday.

Lee Wagonblast had as house guests last week, her grandsons Alex, Charlie, Seth and Max, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagonblast.

Wheatland Pomona Grange will meet at the Rufus Grange Hall on Saturday at 10 a.m.

Dinner will be served at noon, with a cake walk and entertainment during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan were dinner guests of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Buchanan of Pasco, Wash., on Sunday.

Visiting with the Cutsforth family this week were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Otzen, who were enroute to their home in Cloverdale, from Florida, where they had been vacationing.

Mike Burcham of Condon was a dinner guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burcham on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse were Salem and Portland visitors Sunday evening. They had taken their son Carl back to school after several days at his parent's home. While here, Carl visited with friends and relatives in the Ione and Lexington areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva of Central Point were visitors at the Roy Martin home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin and children of Seattle, Wash., visited at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.
