

Mustangs lose both games in double header against Wasco

By GLENN SMITH

The Heppner Mustangs baseball team recently went on the road to play Wasco Co. in a double header at Wasco. In game one, Heppner had trouble hitting the ball and only scored four runs, two in the first inning and two in the fifth. However Wasco scored in all but two innings, winning the game 13-4.

Coach Holland commented that Heppner was playing, "A very good Wasco team." His words proved true for in the second game Wasco again defeated Heppner. The Mustangs improved their hitting game and scored seven runs, but they could not compete with the Wasco team. Wasco scored 18 runs in the first five innings, causing the game to be stopped due to a ten run rule.

Coach Holland went on to say, "Jim Anderson pitched very well for the Wasco team only giving Heppner five hits.

Leading hitters for game number one were Bruce Way and Mark Way, both with doubles, Harry Groshens got on base all four times at bat by walks.

Leading hitters for the second game were Greg Connor, who was two for two, including a double; and John Murray who had a two run home run in the fourth inning.

Coach Holland stated, "The big key in the second game was Heppner's six errors, and letting Wasco get those 16 base hits."

Sarena Panter

Doherty, Heppner attorney-at-law, and the awarding of the Elaine George Memorial Scholarship.

The Rev. Mike Sheridan presented the day's invocation. Soroptimist members introduced themselves and declared their classifications as they responded to rollcall.

President Burkenbine then asked the graduates to introduce themselves and their mothers or mother substitutes. Heppner vocal soloist Linda Gifford was accompanied by Soroptimist pianist Ola Mae Groshens in her presentation of three songs, "Theme from Mahogany", "Sunrise" and "Up a Lazy River," during and after the meal.

The day's talk, presented by Attorney Doherty, recounted her own feelings as she finished her high school work in Heppner about ten years ago. She told of her various post high school learning experiences, urging this year's graduates to stay flexible and to strive for good basic educations. She said that she was rather terrified by her high school speech class, but now is able to face a courtroom and to present a case she has prepared. Her listeners were favorably impressed by her thoughtful and appropriate talk and by its smooth delivery.

The presentation by Mrs.

Marge Kenny and daughter Karen sign guest book

Lovgren of a lovely yellow rose and hearty congratulations to Sarena Panter as the winner of the Elaine George Memorial Scholarship was a high point of the gathering.

The $400 scholarship award was contributed by local friends and admirers of the late Mrs. George and by members of the Soroptimist Clubs of the Northwest Region of Soroptimist International.

As this one-year scholarship is directed toward preparation for a business career, Panter says she plans to use it toward the cost of attending a business college in Kennewick.

The salad luncheon was prepared and served by the women of the Episcopal Church in cooperation with Soroptimist members. The spring flowers which brightened the dining area and decorated the long tables were contributed for the occasion from the garden of Dr. Wallace Wolff.
