Amateurs wanted for fair

Applications are now available for amateur entertainers who'd like to perform at this year's state fair. "We encourage everyone to audition no matter the age, no matter the kind of talent," announced Dan Skinner, entertainment coordinator for the state fair.

If selected, amateur entertainers will become part of an almost non-stop presentation of Oregon's most talented people. Performances will be scheduled for nearly every hour of the 11-day fair schedule, which runs from August 27 through September 6, continued Skinner.

To get an application, drop by the reception desk of the Jackman-Long Building at the state fairgrounds, or dial 364-3123 before June 1st and ask for Dan Skinner. After June 1st, call 378-3247.

Thereunder, to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in the conduct of programs and the operations of facilities. Under this Assurance, these organizations are committed not to discriminate against any person on the ground of race, color, origin in its policies and practices relating to applications for service or any other policies and practices relating to treatment of beneficiaries and participants including rates, conditions and extension of service, use of any of the facilities, attendance at and participation in any meetings of beneficiaries and participants or the exercise of any rights of such beneficiaries and participants in the conduct of the operations of these organizations.

Any person who believes himself, or any specific class of individuals, to be subjected by these organizations to discrimination prohibited by Title VI of the Act and the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder may, by himself or a representative, file with the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, or the Rural Electrification Administration, Washington, D.C. 20520, or this organization, or all, a written complaint. Such complaint must be filed not later than 180 days after the alleged discrimination, or by such later date to which the Secretary of Agriculture or the Rural Electrification Administration extends the time for filing. Identity of complaints will be kept confidential except to the extent of necessary to carry out the purposes of the Rules and Regulations.
