Letters To The Editor

It's a shame

To the editor:
Heppner High School had six top young people competing at the National High School Rodeo Finals last week in Douglas, Wyoming. These kids were competing against at least 1,200 of the very best cowboys and cowgirls from the United States and Canada. They have all represented Oregon very well and placed high at the national level.
It's a shame that your paper missed out on a good news-worthy story about the accomplishments of these kids prior to their going to Douglas. So many local people were not even aware of who had even qualified to go.

Heppner should be very proud of Mike Currin, Lee Rice, Tara Mahoney, Marty Britt, Don Kindsfather and Earl Hammond. Congratulations, kids, you deserve a lot of credit and praise. Job well done!

Sincerely yours,
Annie Schwarz
Heppner

(Editor's note: The Gazette-Times welcomes and appreciates news articles concerning young people and their accomplishments, however, help from the public is needed on keeping us up to date on these activities.)
