

Three CETA youths assisting Neighborhood Center clients

By NEOLA MACKEY
The Neighborhood Center has been fortunate to have three CETA school youths to help with handy-helper jobs and Center upkeep or any aid they can do under guidelines allowed by the Dept. of Labor.

Employed are Jodi Mattison, Greg Orr and Bill Malon. They have helped with windows, light housekeeping such as vacuuming for the elderly or handicapped who are unable to do it themselves. Also many of the clients have needed yard work, such as mowing and cleanup of flower beds done. Extra daily surplus, such as meeting notices, minutes and reports are part of Jodi's duties.

The next visit of the Adult and Family Services Counselor, Janet Phillips, will be August 18, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Food stamp applications are available at the Center during the week as a convenience for those needing applications to bring in for processing to the counselor.

The Social Security representative will be at the Center Friday morning Aug. 13 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. No appointment is necessary.

The Thursday Socials Ladies celebrated with a potluck luncheon last Thursday, July 29 for birthdays for June, July and August.

Those attending enjoyed lunch with birthday cakes later in the afternoon.

A.H.S. GED classes have been completed until fall school starts. Schedules will be available when classes are resumed.

Ione's oldest citizen wins Yard of the Month

Ida Grabill and son-in-law Elmer Ellis

The lone Yard of the Month award has been presented to Ione's oldest citizen, Ida Grabill. Her old fashioned home, located at Third and Spring streets, has a traditional front porch, accented with flowers in bloom throughout the year, said an Ione Garden Club spokesperson.

Mrs. Graybill's yard and parking area are neat, clean and colorful, with yellow snapdragons and pink, purple and white petunias, coral bells and four-o'clocks.

Mrs. Graybill is 100 years old and has lived at her present residence for 65 years.

Her yard is maintained by her son, Gene, and her son-in-law, Elmer Ellis.

American Legion Post 87 to hold potluck

A potluck picnic for American Legion and Auxiliary members of Post No. 87 will be held Saturday, August 7, 7 p.m., at the Arnie Hedman residence, 275 Church St.,

Heppner. Beverages will be furnished, said Rita Hedman. Plans will be made for the post's annual fair and rodeo float, she said.

Oregon Ag. Calendar

August 10 - The Oregon Filbert Commission will meet; time and place are yet to be announced.

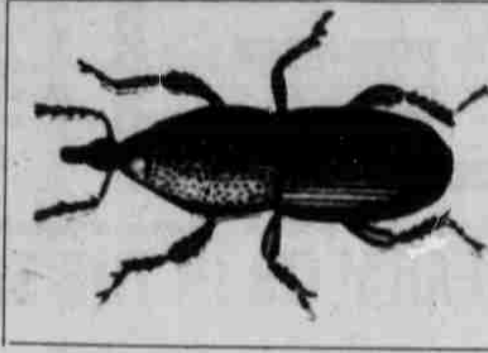

August 10 - The Oregon Ryegrass Commission meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the armory in Albany.

August 11 - The Oregon Table Wine Research Advisory Board will meet in room 105 of the Oregon Department of Agriculture in Salem at 10 a.m.
