

Lexington news

Delpha Jones 989-8189

Lexington residents were deeply grieved to hear of the deaths of two of their citizens during the weekend. Delbert Vinson died at his home on Saturday evening after an extended illness, and Elsie (Allyn) Fox at Pioneer Memorial Hospital where she was taken Friday evening by ambulance.

CWA met at the home of Delpha Jones on Tuesday for a regular meeting. Plans were discussed for a booth at the Morrow County Fair and a committee of Mr. and Mrs. Glover Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan were appointed to take care of this project. Plans were further discussed concerning the Blue Mountain Fiddlers Concert which will be held Sat. night, October 16 at the Grange Hall. This will be their second concert and it is hoped to be a yearly event. There will be a supper at 6:30 p.m. and pie and coffee will be served during the evening. It was also announced that Booster Night will be held Sept. 25 at the hall with Glenna Belle Lewis, state lecturer, as guest speaker. Musical selections and other entertainment are planned for the evening. Those present were Josie Peck, Charlene Papineau, Jean Nelson, Frances Smouse, Marie Steagall, and the hostess. Door prizes were won by Josie Peck and Frances Smouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau and Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Cutsforth spent several days at Anthony Lakes recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Van Leuven of LaGrande and Enid Starnback of Baker were visitors for several days at the C.C. Jones home.

Erda Pieper consulted a physician in Pendleton on Monday.

Leuella Taylor (Mrs. Bob) is employed at the Good Samaritan Center in Hermiston.

The committee working on the yearly Historical Society production met at the home of Inez Erwin on Wednesday afternoon. The book, which was intended to be a quarterly, has developed into a larger edition due to the generous amount of information provided and will be printed yearly.

The committee has announced that it is about ready to be printed and they hope it will be available at the yearly meeting of the society which is scheduled for Sept. 26 at the Lexington Grange hall. The book will also be for sale at other places. The committee welcomes all stories of early happenings in Morrow County, as well as short fun-type articles. Please send anything you might enjoy seeing in print to the committee. Those present for the afternoon were the Chairman Lucile Peck, Lorraine Griffith, Inez Erwin, Etta Parker, Ruth McCabe and Delpha Jones. A few of the committee members were unable to attend. Lovely refreshments were served. This group spent much time and effort in this first publication.

The Three Links Club met at the home of Kathy Tellechea on Thursday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the fall flea market, and the date of Oct. 16 was set. Chairman is Kathy Tellechea, and calls may be made to her if one has articles to donate. Members were reminded of the PNG luncheon to be held the first Wednesday of Sept. and of lodge the first Thursday. Delpha Jones won door prizes.

There will be more of the books "Ione and Us" soon for sale again at the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Ione. There was a demand for more of the books and they have been ordered.

Vicky Bowen and twins James and Katie from Hermiston were Lexington callers at the Kenneth and Cecil Jones home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones were dinner guests of Earl Miller on Thursday evening, at the Nomad Restaurant in Boardman, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bowen in Hermiston on Friday evening to celebrate the Jones' wedding anniversary. Dan Smith of Hermiston returned home with them for a few days vacation.

Linda Jones and boys Chris and Mike and nephew Scott Johnston of Heppner were Seaside callers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Adams have moved to Springfield and he will be teaching at Marcola. Cheryl has been working at the school district office in Lexington. Taking her place is Rhonda Lorenz of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kuth and son were Lexington and Heppner callers from Hermiston on Monday. They visited the Willow Creek Dam project.

Ione City Council approves liquor permit applications

The Ione City Council approved liquor permit applications for Bristow's Market, the Sagebrush Saloon and Beecher's Cafe at a regular monthly meeting last Tuesday, August 10, reported Diana Starr, city recorder.

The council also agreed to install a ventilation fan in the city's pump house to keep the temperature inside the building cool, preventing damage to the pump.

In other business the council moved to approve a zoning permit application for Randy Vosberg, Starr said.

Volunteers needed to cut wood

By NEOLAMACKEY
The Heppner Neighborhood Center has been the recipient of logs which need to be cut into firewood. The wood will be used to provide heat for the elderly. Volunteers are needed to cut the wood to proper size for delivery. Any people or organizations wanting to donate time to cut the wood are asked to contact the center, 676-3873. Some of the logs are in Heppner, others at Lexington. Winter is soon coming and the center has had numerous requests for wood.

15 complete Hunters Safety Course

The Morrow County Search and Rescue Possee conducted a class on hunters safety for students ages eight through 15 on August 9-11 at the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner. Receiving certificates of Thursday craft-social times have been busy cutting donated material into quilt blocks. The requests for warm bedding for winter months will soon be coming and volunteers are needed to sew the tops and backs together. Any lining for the quilts would also be appreciated.

The next visit of Adult and Family Services Counselor Janet Phillips will be on Wednesday, August 25, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Phillips may also be reached at her Condon office, 384-2882.
