

Lexington news

Delpha Jones 989-8189

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for a regular potluck dinner and business meeting. Following the dinner, the group enjoyed slides and a talk by Joanna Bown of South Africa who is a senior at Heppner High School and is living with Larry and Mary Ann Cerullo in Heppner.

The business meeting started with fine committee reports and a report concerning the repair work to be done soon to the building. The report was made by Glover Peck, chairman of the committee. Work will begin soon.

An election of officers was held with the following elected: Master - Delpha Jones; Overseer - Lyle Peck; Secretary - Jean Nelson; Treasurer - Cecil Jones; Lecturer - Charles Buchanan; Chaplain - Marie Steagall; Assistant Steward - Kenneth Smouse; Lady Assistant - Frances Smouse; Ceres-Rena Marquardt; Flora - Charlene Papineau; Pomona - Josie Peck; Executive Third members - Joyce Buchanan, Alfred Nelson and O.W. Cutsforth. The ballot was cast for Luella Taylor and Bob Taylor as transfers from Clarno Grange, and new members Geraldine and Carl Martin by initiation. A date for the initiation was set for Sunday, Dec. 5 at the hall, 4 p.m. with the first two degrees, then dinner, followed by the third and fourth degrees. Dot Halvorsen of Willows Grange will serve as master.

A resolution concerning a caution light to be installed at the intersection in Lexington between the I.O.O.F. Hall, Del's Market, B & B Chevron and V & G Tavern is being prepared to be voted on at the November meeting.

Pomona Grange will meet at the Mikkalo Grange Hall on Saturday starting at 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan were Seattle, Wash. and Portland callers this week.

Lexington residents were grieved to hear of the passing of a long time resident, Lon Edwards, on Saturday, in Pendleton.

Venice Hendrickson, who is spending some time with her daughter, Ann Chick, in Pendleton, spent Sunday at her home in Lexington.

Josie Peck and Delpha Jones were Hermiston business callers on Wednesday and visited Mrs. Jones' mother, Florence McMillan, who is quite ill at the nursing home. Leila Palmer was also a Hermiston caller that same day.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday evening for a regular meeting. The meeting was presided over by the V.G.

Ruth Robinson, in the absence of N.G. Dorothy Burcham, who was ill.

A nomination of officers was held, and plans made for another Flea Market and Bazaar to be held on Saturday. This is to be a sack market, with all customers can get in the provided bags. Cost for each bag is $1. The sale will start at 9 a.m.

The dining area was cleverly decorated in the Halloween motif and hostess Millie Yocom greeted the members, dressed in a clever old witch costume. Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee were served, with each member receiving a bag of Halloween candy.

Virginia Peck and Delpha Jones attended the Rebekah District No. 19 meeting at the grange hall in Stanfield on Saturday. There were about 65 present.

State Assembly President Luella Foster, Vice-President Una Makin and other state elected and appointed officers were introduced. Dinner was served at the Pebyterian Church and was followed by an interesting and informative afternoon.

The president's work shops in which all members took part, were on the topics of parliamentary law, money making and memberships. Reports were given on the topics following the work-shops. The meeting adjourned about 4:30 p.m.

The Bridge Club met at the home of Lota Tibbles for a regular meeting. Those playing were: Lois Hunt, Eileen Padberg, Juanita Carmichael, Daisy Collins, Sharon Harrison, Pat Lankford, Beverly Wilson and the hostess, Mrs. Tibbles. High was won by the hostess and second high, Lois Hunt.

Karen Cooper has moved into the Privett trailer in Lexington.

Morning Prayer Service slated at All Saints

A Morning Prayer Service will be held on Sunday, Oct. 31, at All Saint's Episcopal Church in Heppner, rather than a Communion Service, announced the Rev. Ed Watts, vicar. The service will begin at the usual time, 10:30 a.m. The change is due to the Diocesan Convention being held in Pendleton this weekend, Watts said.

To commemorate All Saints' Day, a special Mass will be celebrated at 7 p.m., November 1, at the church. Celebrant will be the Rev. Watts.

Weddings Rhodes — Leyva

Mrs. Richard Rhodes

Melinda Kay Leyva, daughter of Greg and Barbara Leyva of Wilbur, Wash. became the bride of Richard Alan Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rhodes of Creston, Wash. on September 25. The Rev. Cornelius Verdoorn performed the ceremony at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Wilbur.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. Maid of honor was Cynthia Dougherty, cousin of the bride of Heppner. Bridesmaids were Mary Coucoules and Anita Wiedrick. Flower girls were Staci Leyva, sister of the bride and Shannon Hansen, niece of the groom.

Best Man was Ron Gojn, ushers were Dennis Leyva, brother of the bride and Steve Rhodes, brother of the groom. Organist was Mrs. Daryll Bahr. Janine Chappell was vocalist and Terry Reister played the guitar.

A wedding reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Serving at the reception were Vicky Rhodes, sister of the groom, Mrs. June Crowell of Ione, Mrs. Deanna Brandhagen of Pendleton and Mrs. Pat Dougherty of Heppner, aunts of the bride.

Kevin Leyva and Sharryn Larson were in charge of programs. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva, formerly of Lexington and now of Medford.

Those attending locally were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brandhagen of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell, Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steagall, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington.

The couple is at home in Mesa, Wash. The bride is employed as a registered nurse in Pasco and the groom as a mechanic.

Senior News

At the October 20 Morrow County Senior Citizen Advisory Committee meeting, held in Heppner, the committee unanimously passed a motion made to prepare a resolution to go on record against Ballot Measure No. 3. The group's reason for the resolution is because of the detrimental affects on senior programs and community services, that the measure will have if passed, said a committee spokesperson.

George Gilcrest of LaGrande will be at the Heppner Senior Mealsite Wednesday, Nov. 3 to discuss Medicare and Medicare Supplemental insurance. Some topics of his discussion will be some of the basic things people should know, hints in shopping for private health insurance, types of private health insurance, and what medicare pays and doesn't pay.

Tri-County Home Health nurse Karen Thomas will be at the mealsite on November 3 to conduct blood pressure testing beginning at 11 a.m.

Any senior citizen desiring a noon carry out meal on Wednesdays is asked to call Cherie Clark, 676-5222, or Bill Collins, 676-9947.

Ione and Lexington residents needing a ride to Heppner on Wednesdays are asked to call Dot Halvorsen, 422-7143, to make arrangements.

Seniors attending the noon meal at the mealsite are not charged for transportation. For those over 60 who do not attend, the cost is 75 cents round trip. Cost for commuters under 60 is $1.50.

Heppner seniors needing a ride to the mealsite should call Mary Nikander, 676-5571, to make arrangements.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Insulate your water meters for the winter months. You may use gunny sacks, insulation, old rags in a plastic bag, etc. Please do not use sawdust or bark. If you have had frozen pipes in the past, it is advisable to let a faucet run at a fast drip during extremely cold weather. Any damages resulting from frozen water meters that have not been insulated will be repaired at the owners' expense. You will be billed a minimum until the meters are read again the last of March. Thank you.
