Pasco winery tour for Fall Fun Day planned

Reservations must be accompanied by a $10 check made payable to Morrow Homemaker Advisory Council by November 20.

Pasco winery tour for Fall Fun Day planned

An annual Fall Fun Day, sponsored by Extension Homemaker Advisory Council, is planned for December 2 with a tour of a winery at Pasco, Wash.

A bus has been chartered to take those interested at a cost of $10 per person. Passengers may board the bus at Heppner, Lexington or Irrigon.

No host luncheon reservations will be made at a popular restaurant in Pasco, and time allowed for enjoying the Christmas decorations at Columbia Center prior to returning home.

Vineyards and wineries are new industries in Oregon. Pasco was selected as it is presently the nearest winery with accommodations for tour groups.

DA's Report

Merlyn Stone, 45, of Hardman, was sentenced October 27 in Morrow County Justice Court (Heppner) for Menacing. He was sentenced to six months in jail and a $325 fine—both suspended on the condition that he serve three days in jail, pay a $207 fine and successfully complete bench probation (not assigned a probation officer but instead reports to the court) for two years and must have no further violations of the law, reported Morrow Co. Deputy District Attorney Harold McLean.

In other news, McLean reported: Wade Forrest Drury, 26, of Hermiston, pleaded guilty to charges of Second Degree Theft in response to an indictment issued by a grand jury on August 31. He was placed on bench probation for one year on the condition that he pay $118.76 restitution to the victim, James Puckett of Hermiston, pay restitution to Morrow County for attorney fees of $211.50, and a fine of $107.

Armin David Ward, 27, of Astoria, was granted diversion on a Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants charge on October 29 in Morrow County District Court. The diversion period is for six months and he will undergo diagnostic assessment and treatment as part of the diversion. Ward paid a diversion fee of $275.

James Benjamin Eaton, 31, of Hermiston, was arraigned in Morrow County Justice Court (Heppner) on Friday, Oct. 29 on a felony complaint charging him with alleged First Degree Robbery and Attempted Murder. Earl J. Smith, of Bay City, was the alleged victim. The alleged incident occurred October 28 in the Cutsforth Park area while Smith was camping, awaiting the beginning of elk season.

The arrest followed an investigation by Terry Springer, Heppner of the Oregon State Police.

An attorney from The Dalles was appointed as council for Eaton, who was lodged at the Wasco County Jail at The Dalles on a $100,000 bail requirement.

The case was continued pending the defense council's decision on whether a preliminary hearing is necessary. The Morrow County District Attorney's office plans to present the case to a grand jury following the decision on a preliminary hearing.
