There were 41 buyers and 132 consignors represented at Thursday's market.
MARKET TREND: With the market falling off at its current rate, there has been a rush to the town which is keeping the market saturated beyond demand. Even though there were plenty of buyers present, there still wasn't any amount of demand shown. The quality of cattle that were offered was of a plain type with any choice cattle few and far between. For the number of cattle brought in, the selection of buyers were looking for was very limited.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, November 4th with 150 500 lb. steers and heifers and 50 head of cross bred weaned calves, along with the regular run of cattle. Also coming up is the Oveson Hereford Sale which will have the same excellent bulls and heifers that the Oveson's have produced for a number of years. If LaGrande Livestock can be of any assistance with your marketing needs, give them a call at 963-2158. Field Rep: Don Robinson 562-5259 Yard Forman: Leland Gibbs
