LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Thanks for support

To the editor:

I would like to thank all who worked so hard on my campaign for U.S. Congress and those who voted for me.

No candidate can run successfully in an area the size of Oregon's Second Congressional District without a tremendous amount of help and encouragement from many, many people. I want you to know how much I appreciate your support.

With so many important issues at stake it is particularly disappointing to lose. However, we came a long way in a hurry, going from virtually zero name recognition to 45 percent of the vote in only nine months. Representative Al Ullman was defeated once before he was successful and Representative Jim Weaver ran three times before winning. Far from being discouraged, I am encouraged and will run again for U.S. Congress in 1984.

As your Democratic National Committeewoman I will continue to represent you. I'll be fighting against Inland Waterway User Taxes and working toward refinancing WPPSS bonds. I'll also be pushing for legislation designed to stimulate the home housing industry such as the Home Mortgage Buy Down Bill and relaxed restrictions on the use of private pension funds for home mortgages.

I welcome any thoughts or comments you would like to offer. Please write: Larryann Willis, Rt. 2, Box 2574, Vale, Ore. 97918.

Thanks to those who worked so hard

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the hundreds and hundreds of people throughout the Second District who worked so hard for my election in Congress. Without their untiring efforts in arranging appearances for me, introducing me to residents in their communities, telephoning, putting up lawn signs and contributing financially and in myriad other ways, the campaign would not have been successful.

As it was, I carried all 20 counties in the district, and for that, thanks are also due to the some 108,000 voters who went to the polls to support my candidacy.

Particular thanks are also due to the chairmen and honorary chairmen in each county, among them Ray French and Merlin Hughes in Morrow County.

To each and everyone who worked in any on this campaign, my deep appreciation.

The job has just begun, but I pledge to do my very best to represent the people of the Second District in Congress.

Sincerely,
Bob Smith
Member-Elect, U.S. House of Representatives

Sincerely,
Larryann Willis

Building your jewelry wardrobe.

Building a basic gold jewelry wardrobe can be fun... and it doesn't have to be costly. Real karat gold lasts and lasts, without tarnishing. And it's so versatile, you can mix and match a few basic pieces for any look you want. Just begin with classic items and build from there.

Pins have made a comeback with the return of the classic look in women's clothing. A pin is the perfect companion piece to your suits. Wear pins or brooches to accent jacket lapels and collars, and ascot ties. If you like to wear kilts or cowl neck sweaters, add a real karat gold safety pin for a fashionable touch. Bar pins and stickpins are both versatile and affordable, as are small scatter tacks. Favorites include hearts, flowers, animals, geometrics and bows. Their price makes these pins attractive gift ideas, too. Karat gold pins: an essential part of any woman's gold jewelry wardrobe.

Nothing else feels like real gold. Nothing else makes any moment so precious.
