

Juvenile Ser. Comm. directors meet

The board of directors of the Morrow County Juvenile Services Commission met for a regular monthly meeting on January 12 in Boardman.

Reports were heard concerning each of the commission's five programs: the north end recreation program, the tutor-assistants program, a program for victims of sexual abuse, the adulthood workshops program and the Latchkey program.

The adulthood workshops are not scheduled to begin until later this year, said a commission spokesperson.

Other program directors are enthusiastic about the success of their programs, she said. Bill Sheirbon gave a report on his recent trip to a State Juvenile Services Commission meeting in Salem.

The commission's next meeting is to be held at the Morrow County administration office in Lexington on February 7.

The second annual Rolling Hills Run in Heppner is slated for Sunday, April 10, at 1 p.m.

There will be a 3.1 mile and 6.2 mile easy, slightly downhill courses following Hinton Creek into Heppner, said a run spokesperson. Proceeds from the run will benefit a new Little League field in Heppner. Rolling Hills Run T-shirts and certificates will be awarded to all finishers. Trophies will be awarded to the first place male and female finishers and to the oldest and youngest finishers overall. First, second and third place ribbons will also be

Hammond receives hat for rodeo

Hammond, named World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider, was presented with a specially designed hat from Resistol's Jim Owen (left). The world's largest manufacturer of branded hatwear, Resistol is "committed to youth rodeo," says the company's advertising manager.

More than 100 high school students from around the country competed for prize saddles and scholarships at the event.

Resistol Hats co-sponsored the Youth National Finals Rodeo with Levi Strauss & Co. and Barq's Root Beer.

Heppner's champ golfer makes move to Phoenix

By JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

Heppner's golfing pride, Charlie Rawlins, who has been Oregon's Left-Handed Champ for three years, is soon to brighten golfing circles around Phoenix, Arizona.

Rawlins, who played golf for Central Oregon Community College at Bend and worked at the Bend Country Club for several years, earned his B.S. in Physical Education in December, 1982, from Western Kentucky University at Bowling Green. He had a golf scholarship there and played regularly on the university golf team for two years.

Since just before Christmas, when he drove part of the way west with his brother, John, and sister-in-law, Martha, he has been staying with his parents, Jane and Bill, at their home in Heppner.

On Saturday, January 15, he left for work at the Paradise Valley Golf Course in North Phoenix, where he will assist the pro Bryan Whitcomb. Morrow County folks who visit Phoenix may want to visit Charlie there and try the Paradise Valley Course.

4-H Leaders Seminar to be held January 29

By BIRDINE TULLIS
Morrow Co. Extension Service

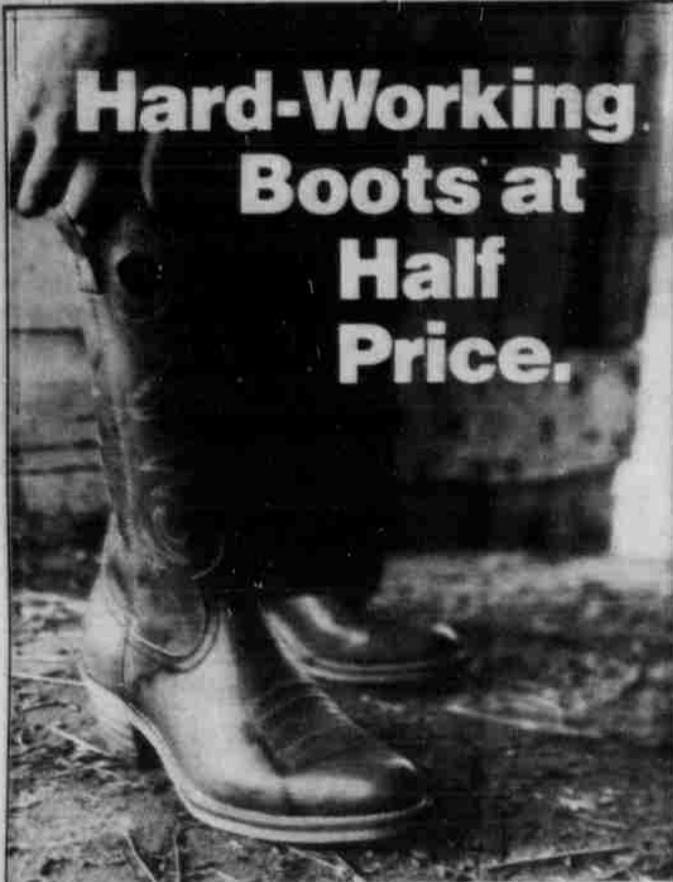

Two special guest speakers will provide information helpful to all 4-H leaders at a leaders seminar on Saturday, Jan. 29, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the fairgrounds in Heppner.

New pastor to serve Friendship Baptist

Jesse "Jay" Rowley is the new pastor of Friendship Baptist Church in Heppner. Jay and his wife, Peggy, moved to Heppner last week from Philomath, where they had lived for the past 17 years, said Nancy Bruch, spokesperson for the church.

Mr. Rowley was part-owner and secretary-treasurer of Tree Farm Stewards Inc. in Philomath. The Rowleys were active in the First Baptist Church where Jay was youth director and Peggy was church treasurer.

The Rowleys have been awarded in the age divisions for both distances.

Runners should pre-register by March 11 to guarantee a T-shirt. Pre-registration fee is $6. There is also a late registration period up until the day of the run. Late registration cost is $7. Registration fee for family members after the first two is $4.

The event is being sponsored by Heppner Elementary School and the Heppner Lions Club. For further information contact Brenda Weygandt, Rt. 1, Box 3456, Heppner, Ore. 97836. Phone 676-5057.

married 31 years and have five children and nine grandchildren. Mr. Rowley attended the Bible Institute of Los Angeles in Southern California, and Portland Community College.

Looking toward the future, Mr. Rowley says he hopes to work with the deacon board to set goals for the church.

Council comm. meets

The planning committee of the South Morrow County Leaders Council met at the fairgrounds in Heppner on January 3. Fifteen leaders and other interested persons were present.

The purpose of the meeting was to organize various committee councils to more effectively taking care of general 4-H problems and projects, said Janell Bailey, reporter. Budget projections and expenditures were discussed. Also, officers were elected. They are: President Jean Brazell, Vice-President Jan Coe, Secretary Lea Calvert, Treasurer Sharon Harrison and Reporter Janell Bailey. Plans for the 4-H sledding party at Cutsforth Park on January 15 were also discussed.

The next meeting of the Leaders Council will be February 28.

January 29 there will be a workshop for leaders in all fields, at the fairgrounds. All leaders and assistant leaders are urged to attend. (See related story).
