

Ione rips Dufer Rangers

By CRAIG GUTIERREZ

The Ione Cardinals kept their place in the league standings as they defeated the Dufer Rangers. The Cardinals had the same troubles as the night before but managed to convert some fast breaks and rebounds into points that helped the birds to down the Rangers 64-39.

The first half was a repeat of the previous night but fortunately for the Cardinals, the Rangers had the same problem, but theirs was much more severe.

The Cardinals were led in scoring by Donnie Taylor who racked up a big 10 first half points to aid in the 29 to 3 halftime score. As you can tell by the score, the Cardinals did have good defensive efforts despite the poor offensive showing. Tim Patton was second in scoring with seven points.

In the second half, the birds got their act together, and brought their lead to 33 points as the score was 52-19 at the end of the quarter. Randy McCabe led Ione in scoring with nine points for a 64-39 final score.

The Cards shot better during this game than they did the night before as 45 percent of the shots they took from the field chopped. Also 60 percent of the free throws ripped the nylon. The birds grabbed 48 boards compared to Dufer's 37. Craig Hams grabbed 10 of the boards for the birds of Ione.

Ione had 28 turnovers for the night compared to Dufer's 11, but they still managed to do the job. Ione's reserves got in a lot of playing time for the Cardinals.

The birds will meet the Cougars of Echo Friday night and the Grizzlies of Helix on

Tom Huston sinks 25 ft. shot for Mustang win

By GLENN SMITH

An unbelievable shot by Tom Huston as the buzzer sounded captured an incredible win for the Heppner Mustangs, defeating the Umatilla Vikings by two points last Friday night, Jan. 25.

After a previous loss to Umatilla by two in overtime, the Mustang revenge was complete when with four seconds left in the game, and a tie score threatening another overtime, Tom Huston sank a 25-ft. shot to beat the Vikings 58-56. Huston also sank a similar shot at the end of the third quarter.

Coach Brent Eggers was pleased with the shots. "Tom showed great pose and form on both shots considering the pressure he was under. It was a thriller."

However, Eggers was not pleased with the overall execution of the ball game, commenting "We just didn't play very well. We wanted to slow down the tempo purposely but we only succeeded in upsetting both teams. We had no ball movement, no patience and because of this we missed an unbelievable amount of easy shots.

In the game, Mike Currin and Jeff Orr had to go out because of foul trouble. The bench, led by Rod Cole and Shane Laughlin, roared out to give the Mustangs a ten-point lead by halftime. That and the two shots by Huston are what Coach Eggers believes won the game.

Heppner lost this lead in the second half when they got into foul trouble. "The last half we lost our concentration and that resulted in a lot of dumb fouls. We just didn't execute the offense the way that it's supposed to be run."

Coach Eggers did find a couple of things to complement the Mustangs on stating "It was a good win under the circumstances. We handled their press well and did a letter job of screening them off at the boards."

The Umatilla win was a necessity for the Mustangs to stay in league action and though their hopes are slim now, according to Eggers they are "still hanging in there."
