

D.A.'s Report

Thomas Winston Westmoreland III, 20, of Umatilla, will be resubmitted to a grand jury on charges of alleged Aggravated Murder, Murder, First Degree Robbery and First Degree Theft later this month, reported Morrow County District Attorney Richard J. McNeerney. Westmoreland was indicted by a grand jury January 3, but due to a technicality, his case must be resubmitted.

In other news, McNeerney reported: Randy S. Greene, 18, of Irrigon, pleaded guilty to charges of Second Degree Theft and First Degree Criminal Trespass last Thursday in Morrow Co. Circuit Court. He was sentenced to six months in jail on both offenses.

John Paul Johnson, 18, of Irrigon, was convicted by a jury on charges of First Degree Theft and Second Degree Burglary.

Ted Sampson, 35, of Irrigon, was convicted by a jury of Failure to Have a Brand Inspection prior to Interstate Shipment of Cattle on January 31 in Irrigon Justice Court. He was sentenced to pay a $250 fine.

Rick Eugene Rogers, 25, of Pendleton, was sentenced February 2 to 20 days in the Umatilla County Jail with credit given for time previously served, must make restitution to Ye Old Swap Shop, Hermiston, must pay court appointed attorney fees, was placed on probation for two years and must pay probation costs. Rogers was charged with alleged First Degree Theft and later pleaded guilty to Second Degree Theft after an incident occurring July 13, 1982.

John Krebs, 32, of Ione, was sentenced February 2 on charges of First Degree Theft to three years probation, 60 days in jail and must pay $362.50 restitution to Gerald Rea and must make himself and his property available for inspection by his probation officer.
