There were 20 buyers and 31 consignors represented at Thursday's market.

MARKET TREND: Although the number of cattle sold was light it was a good market with buyers actively bidding on everything offered. The market was steady to stronger with plenty of demand shown. Light calves were $2.00 - $3.00 stronger.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, February 17 with 140 head of good green calves along with the regular run of cattle. The sale on March 3 is shaping up very well with several consignments of quality calves and yearlings already consigned.

Field Representative: Don Robinson 562-5259.
