Alecia Tarnasky and her dad, Ed, enjoy dinner together at the annual Heppner Camp Fire "Special Night for Dads." The potluck dinner and program of songs were held last Tuesday night at St. Patrick's Catholic Parish Hall in Heppner.

Co. sheriff's deputy to graduate Friday

Paul Bettiol, executive director of the Board on Police Standards and Training, announced recently that Basic Police Class No. 110 will graduate from the Oregon Police Academy at Monmouth this Friday, Feb. 18. Morrow County sheriff's deputy Jeffrey E. McCauley, 22, is one of the graduates, Bettiol said.

The academy is an integral part of the training program administered by the Oregon Board on Police Standards and Training (BPST), and parole and probation officers from throughout the state, he said.

The 34 students graduating from the seven-week police course will be joining 4,004 other police officers who have successfully completed the academy in previous classes. Twenty-seven different departments are represented by graduates of this class.

Awards will be presented to outstanding officers for performance in academic achievement, firearms training and physical development, he concluded.

New 4-H Cake Decorating clubs to begin Feb. 17

By BIRDINE TULLIS
Program Assistant
Morrow Co. Extension Service

Jan Coe of Heppner, the 4-H leader whose club gained fame last year with their beautifully decorated cakes, says she's ready to start again with two new 4-H cake clubs! Organizational meeting for both groups will be held Thursday, Feb. 17, 7 p.m., at the 4-H Annex at the fairgrounds in Heppner. At that time the group will be divided into a beginners club and a club for those who participated last year and/or are more advanced.

All the club meetings will be held at the Fairgrounds Annex in Heppner.

Jan asks that members be sixth grade or older and she welcomes both girls and boys. For more details, call Mrs. Coe, or the Extension office, 676-9642.

Ione Jr. High girls extend losing streak

By ASHLEY CONKLIN

The Ione Junior High girls extended their losing streak to three games last Thursday, Feb. 10, losing to the Echo Cougars 35-24. The Cardinals dropped to three and six.

Six points were scored by both teams in the first quarter.

Echo doubled Ione's scoring 12 to 6 in the second period, showing an 18-12 intermission advantage.

In the third quarter, it was the Cardinals' turn to double the Cougars' point tally eight to four, behind six Deena Hams' points, to narrow the margin to 22-20.

The fourth period was all Echo, as they hit for 13 points to the Cards' four to win, 35-24.

Again, as in many games, Ione shot poorly at the foul line, making only four of 14, for 28.6 percent. The Cougars were 45.4 percent, shooting five of 11.

Deena Hams of the Cards led all scorers with 16 points. Jill Conklin helped the Cardinal cause with four points.

Ione finished the season against the Condon Blue Devils, on February 12. (See story).

Ione Jr. High boys defeat Echo in tough one

By ASHLEY CONKLIN

Ione's Junior High boys' basketball team defeated the Echo Cougars last Thursday, Feb. 10, but it wasn't easy as the Cardinals escaped with a 30 to 24 win that increased their record 8-1.

The first quarter was a seesaw battle with Ione taking a six to four lead.

Joe Saylor and Dan McCarty of Echo each scored five in the second period, as both teams hit for 10. The halftime tally was 16 to 14, Ione.

Both squads were even in the third quarter, getting six points apiece. The Cards led 22-20.

Behind six fourth period points by Mike Rietmann, Ione took the period 8 to 4 and the game 30-24.

Rietmann led all scorers with 12 points. Chris Rea provided Ione with six more.

Echo was led by Dan Mc-

Carty and Joe Saylor who threw 11 and 9 points respectively through the hoop.

The Cougars had the foul shooting advantage, making four out of eight for 50 percent. The Cardinals were two of nine, 22.2 percent.

Ione finished the season at Condon on February 12. (See story).

Jr. high 5 lose final season game to Condon

By ASHLEY CONKLIN

Despite an excellent 2-1-2 zone defense, the Ione Jr. High five lost their final boys' game of the season 38 to 27 at the hands of the Condon Blue Devils on Saturday, Feb. 12. Bob Deeter's Cardinals completed the season 8-2.

Defense opened the game and Ione closed the first stanza ahead two to one, with Ken Snider getting Ione's two.

Condon rallied in the second quarter behind Chad Smith's six points, to lead at the break 11-9.

The Cardinals controlled the third period 11 to 4, thanks to eight from Mike Rietmann. Ione's advantage was 20-15.

In the fourth quarter, however, disaster struck the Cards. Leading 24 to 20 with 2:30 left in the game, center

Mike Rietmann fouled out. Eight seconds later forward Chris Rea fouled out with Ione ahead 26 to 22. The Devils then out scored the Cards 16-1, with Scott Miller putting in 15 of his game high 17.

Ione did have success at the foul line, making 13 out of 18 shots for 72.2 percent. Condon was 10 for 17, 58.8 percent.

The 8-2 mark of the Cards was the best boys' junior high record at Ione since the 1975-76 team went undefeated.
