The Three Links Club of Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Annetta Padberg on Thursday for the regular meeting. Plans were discussed for the coming spring activities, and work on gifts for the District meeting were the activities of the afternoon. Those present were: Leila Palmer, Joyce Buchanan, Virginia Peck, Josie Peck, Dorothy Burcham, Kathy Telchea, Luella Taylor, Ruth Robinson, Donna Papineau, Delpha Jones, Eula Bloodworth and Catie Padberg, and the hostess. Lovely refreshments were served and the door prize was won by Luella Taylor.

The card party held at the Lexington Grange hall on Saturday night was well attended with six tables of players. Prizes were won by Anna Ball, women's high; Frances Smouse, traveling; and Clea Walter, low. Men's prizes were: Dennis Papineau High, Kenneth Palmer, low; and Kenneth Smouse, traveling. Lovely refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones were Portland and Lincoln City callers last weekend. They enjoyed birthday cake and coffee for Mr. Jones at the home of his nephew and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Miller at their home in Gresham. They also visited a daughter, Charlene, and Mr. Jones' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Jones in Lincoln City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck enjoyed a weekend at the Oregon Coast, this past week with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allstott of Pendleton.

It is reported that Orville Cutsforth who returned to The Dalles General Hospital was much improved last week and will hopefully return home soon.

Ruth Robinson, Annetta Padberg and Delpha Jones attended the meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge in Heppner on Friday night and helped with the initiatory work at that lodge. Plans are being made there at the lodge for the President of the Assembly's official visit in March. Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

The food sale held on Saturday at Del's Market was well attended and the Rebekah members express their appreciation for those who are always willing to assist in their projects. The money will be used to help defray costs of carpeting being laid this week in the dining area of the hall. The Oddfellows and Rebekahs work hard to keep their hall repaired and clean for the public to use for various projects.

The Willows Grange hall was the setting of a meeting of the membership chairman and Masters of the subordinate and Pomona Granges in this area. There was much discussion on the prospects of obtaining members and how to get them and how to keep them interested. The Grange offers many things for its members, such as a foot in the legislation by means of resolutions sent to that body via the State Grange. There is a member of the state grange in attendance at the legislation to speak for the grange and its members. They work toward better road conditions, schools, medical research, and many other projects as well as entertainment at the meetings. Most all grange halls are available for meetings in their respective areas. This is a good clean organization and one that has much to offer its members. If you are interested in this group, ask any member and they will explain it all to you. There were 20 members present coming from Willows, Lexington Grange - three, Mikkalo - two, Balow Gate - one, Cherry Park - one, Columbia - four, Stanfield - two, and Rufus - four. Jack Preston, Wasco County Pomona Master and member of State membership committee was one of the speakers of the day, and other officers present were Rolland Johnson, Master of Wheatland Pomona Grange, Doris Ried, District No. Four CWA chairman, Perry Ried County deputy of Umatilla County, Joe DuPuis, Master of Umatilla County Pomona and other interested people.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom had as their visitors Sunday and Monday their granddaughters from Hermiston, daughters of Debbi Jones. Mrs. Jones and family have moved back to Hermiston from Milton-Freewater. She is employed at the Good Samaritan Center in Hermiston.

Venice Hendrickson who has spent the winter in Hermiston has again moved to Pendleton.

The card party scheduled for March 5 at the Holly Rebekah Lodge will be held on March 12 instead, due to the Rebekah District Meeting at the hall.

Those interested in going on May 7 to Fort Vancouver on the Historical Society bus trip should get their reservations in. The society must know how many plan to go so that motel reservations can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor returned Monday from attending a memorial service for her mother, Leslie Berreth, at Waldport, February 21. Berreth made her home in Seal Rock, Oregon. Survivors include her husband and three children.

The Sonar system of discovering objects under water was developed by Paul Langevin around the end of World War I.
