

'How to handle stress' program rescheduled

The second program of the Building Better Lives series, "How to Handle Stress," originally scheduled for March 17, has been postponed and rescheduled to start on April 12. The program will be held at 7 p.m. at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 560 N. Minor, in Heppner.

"If we are to enjoy optimum health, we must cope with stress in positive ways," stated Don Reiber, who will be leading the presentation. "Those wishing to gain some ideas on how to do this are invited to attend. There is no charge," he added.

The Building Better Lives series is brought to the community by the local Seventh-day Adventist Church. The third program, "How to Deal With Stress," will focus on ways of cutting medical expenses. No date has yet been set for this topic.

Apartment inspected

By JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

Sunday afternoon, Mar. 13, the ready-and-waiting housing that has been prepared for a refugee family expected to come to Heppner in the near future under the sponsorship of Hope and Valby Lutheran churches was open for inspection by interested persons.

The spacious first-floor apartment of the large home belonging to the Francis Doherty Estate, on the corner of Gale and Church streets, has been completely renovated and tastefully furnished by church members under the capable direction of Jane Rawlins. From 12 noon until 2 p.m., admiring viewers walked through the entry hall, livingroom, two bedrooms, large kitchen, bathroom and utility porch which are very clean and attractive.

Church women served refreshments to the interested visitors, all of whom hope that the European parents and their two children will reach Heppner soon.
