Scott Forsythe, a fifth grade student at Heppner Elementary School, jumps rope for heart at a benefit for the American Heart Association. The event was held last Wednesday in conjunction with a health fair at the school. Heppner coordinator Brenda Weygandt reported 80 students and 12 teachers participated in the event. Almost $2,600 was pledged, and community support was tremendous, she said. A separate contest was held every 15 minutes for the jumpers and the junior high student council provided prizes for the winners.
