

Basketball players honored at IHS sports dessert

Ione High School varsity basketball players wait to receive certificates from Coach Del LaRue at sports dessert held March 1 at the school.

By CRAIG GUTIERREZ

Ione High School's basketball season came to a close and the participants in the sport were honored in many different fields at a sports dessert held March 1.

First of all, Junior Varsity Coach, David Sime honored all of his players with certificates of a job well done. Those players were: Mike Douglas, Brian Douglas, Eric Pointer, Donnie Doherty, Rod Taylor, Jeff Ball, Steve Millman and Paula Anderson. Sime also reviewed the season record and highlighted a few bright spots of the 1982-83 season.

Varsity Coach Del LaRue presented certificates to all the Varsity players who participated in the season's play. Those players were: Mark Meyers, Randy McCabe, Dar-rin Padberg, Craig Hams, Howard Leavitt, and the seniors who played their last game of basketball at Ione were Tim Patton, Donnie Taylor, Roger Morter, Denny Starr, and Craig Gutierrez.

LaRue also had a few special awards of his own to offer. The award for most rebounds went to Tim Patton and the award for the most assists went to Denny Starr.

The players also received individual plaques that listed each of their individual statistics and stickers for special achievements the plaques also give the season record at the bottom.

Ione had one All Conference player picked by the coaches of the Big Sky Conference and Tim Patton received this award.

The players and their families enjoyed the nice dessert and many viewed video films of two of Ione's basketball games.
