Doctor to open practice in May

Clare L. Koznek, D.O.

South Morrow County will soon have another doctor as Clare L. Koznek, Doctor of Osteopathy, had his application approved recently by the medical staff and board of directors of Pioneer Memorial Hospital, announced A.K. "Lucky" Felt, hospital administrator.

Koznek, 37, currently is in private practice at Sandy. He has hospital privileges at Gresham Community Hospital and at Portland Adventist Hospital since the Gresham hospital has no obstetric facilities.

Raised in The Dalles area, he attended Portland State University and then Kansas City College of Osteopathic Medicine at Kansas City, Mo. He then established two general practice offices in rural Kansas. He has been practicing general and family medicine in Sandy since 1979.

One of the reasons Koznek applied in Heppner was because he wanted to return to Eastern Oregon and work in a small town, Felt said.

Felt said the doctor plans to begin seeing patients by May 1, but it is not yet known if Koznek's office will be immediately located at the medical clinic behind the hospital or at first at the hospital. After Dr. Gifford leaves, Felt said, Koznek's office will be in the clinic building.

Koznek and his wife, Doris, who has worked with him in his practice, have no children.

'Puss 'n' Boots' to be presented

On Wednesday, and Thursday, April 6 and 7, at 4 p.m., the Heppner High School Drama Club will present "Puss 'n' Boots," a delightful dramatic rendition of the classic fairy tale about the cat wearing boots and a hat.

The play is to be held at the Heppner Elementary School Multipurpose Room with free admission to everyone.

Members of the cast include a typical fairy tale king played by Bob Harris; a young and lovely princess, Vicki Adams; the perky palace maid, Ella, played by Merry DeSpain; the Miller's daughters, Jane and Ella, Melissa Privett and Annette Wilgers; their brother Carl, Loren Hayes; and Monsieur Puss 'n' Boots, played by Ken Curtis. Stage manager is Mardel James.

The story is set in the land of make-believe.

"This play should be enjoyed by youngsters of all ages," said Larry Cerullo, director. "I encourage parents to bring their children."

Easter Egg Hunts planned

An annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the local Elks Lodge, will be held this Saturday, April 2, beginning at 10 a.m. in Heppner.

Pre-school children will hunt for candy eggs at the museum and park, children in first and second grades will search on the courthouse lawn and third and fourth grade students will hunt at the grade school playground.

An Easter Egg Hunt for lone kids will be held Saturday, April 2, beginning at 10 a.m.

Pre-school children are to meet at St. William's Catholic Church. Kindergarten and first grade students will hunt on the east side of the park and second and third graders on the west side.

Kindergarten through third grade hunters will look for gold and silver eggs to trade in for prizes, and money eggs. Pre-school egg hunters will receive prizes.

The Easter Egg Hunt is sponsored annually by the lone Extension Club.

Food, dancers & live music highlight queen's coronation

Good food, dancers and live music highlighted this year's 1983 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Coronation last Saturday night.

Queen Lottie Laughlin of Heppner was honored with her court at a potluck dinner at St. Patrick's Catholic Parish Hall with over 130 people attending.

Rodeo Chairman Don Strober was master of ceremonies with the Rev. John Maas giving the invocation.

After the meal former Heppner resident Jim Ackley sang the opening song which was dedicated to Queen Lottie and her court.

Charly Daly, fair board chairman, then crowned the queen with a tiara presented to the court by Cole's Posy Patch, Heppner.

The next presentation came when bank representatives gave the court members buckles. J.W. Pierson gave Queen Lottie her buckle on behalf of the Bank of Eastern Oregon. Princess Sylvia Ladd received her buckle from Mary Eleanor Gilman of first Interstate Bank. The next buckle was given to Princess Dawn Timms by Cindy Greenup, representing Western Heritage Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Entertainment followed with young girls dancing. Alecia Tarnasky and Shannon Elliott from Heppner, along with some Hermiston girls made up the six-member dance troupe.

The program continued with Lottie introducing her court and pennant bearers. They in turn introduced their families and talked about themselves. The pennant bearers also served as hostesses. They are: Wendy Skillcorn, Dyann Brosnan, Bridgett Greenup, Stacey Kennedy and Bobbette Angell.

Also included in the one and one-half hour coronation was the introduction of the fair and rodeo committees. Charley Daly introduced the fair board, Roger Records followed with the naming of the fair committee and Don Strober acknowledged the rodeo committee.

The evening concluded with over 200 attending the coronation dance at the Morrow County Fairgrounds Pavilion featuring the Jim Ackley Band.
