There were 41 buyers and 47 consignors represented at Thursday's market.

MARKET TREND: Compared to last week's hot market this week's prices were down considerably, yet were consistent with the market elsewhere. Cattle this week generally had a heavier fill which combined with the fact that many of the individual buyers were taking advantage of the break in the weather to be out in their fields, kept the prices out of the high range they hit last week. Cows and bulls held steady.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, April 14th.
