With the school year over, Kimberle Wright and Sheri Piper will have more time to complete plans for their exciting summer adventure in Japan.

The two Morrow Co. 4-H'ers have been accepted as Labo exchange delegates to Japan. Their departure and return coincides with the arrival of the exchanges from Japan.

Sheri Piper

Kimberle, daughter of Ken and Judy Wright, just completed her freshman year at Heppner High School. The Wright family hosted a Japanese student previously, and Kimberle will visit in the home of her former guest. Her sister, Nance, will host a Japanese visitor this year.

Sheri's family, too, have been involved in the Labo exchange, with sister Janette

Camp Fire Day Camp to be held in Heppner soon

A Camp Fire Day Camp will be held at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner June 29 through July 1 and is open to any boy who has completed the first or second grade and girls in first through fifth grade.

The first two days of camp will be held at the fairgrounds. On July 1 the group will travel to Cutsforth Park for a cook-out and nature activities, said Irene Plocharsky, a camp organizer.

Registration cost is $9 per member. Non-members are invited to join for an additional dollar to cover insurance. Anyone interested in attending the camp may contact Mrs. Plocharsky at 676-5594.

Members also watched two slides: one on lamb and ewe management and another on lamb carcasses and evaluation.

They also talked about having a car wash to raise money for the club. The next meeting will be held June 10.

On May 8, the Gooseberry Livestock 4-H Club held a meeting at Mr. Van Schoick's house. The group talked about planning a trip to tour Simplot, Pendleton Woolen Mills and Hill Meat Company on June 10.

Albert G. Schunk

HEPPNER - Albert G. Schunk, 87, of Heppner, died June 5, 1983, at Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home.

He was born at Winlock April 23, 1896 to August and Wilhelmina Schunk. He moved to Oregon City in 1909.

In 1917, he enlisted in the Army. Following World War I he returned to this area.

On December 25, 1921, he married Flora Barlow in Heppner.

Mr. Schunk served as chief of police in Heppner from the late 1930s to the early 1940s. He also was a carpenter and worked in the area for many years. He lived in Hermiston for a number of years before returning to Heppner four years ago.

He was a member of the Christian Church.

Funeral services were held June 7 at First Christian Church in Heppner with the Rev. Don Shelton officiating. Musical selections were by Rikka Tews, organist, and Ron McDonald, soloist.

Honorary bearers were Bud Marshall, Dr. L.D. Tibbles, Carl McDaniel and Dr. H.S. Huber.

Committal services and burial were June 8 at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland.

He was preceded in death by two children and two grandchildren.

Survivors include his wife, Flora Schunk, of Heppner; daughter Louise Britt of Spray; sons Herbert of Lake Oswego, and Kenneth of San Diego, Calif.; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Respiratory Research at the University of Oregon Health Sciences Center, 3181 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland 97201.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner was in charge of arrangements.
