Cheese, milk to be given away Tues. at center

Cheese and powdered milk will be distributed from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Heppner Neighborhood Center next Tuesday, June 28, to those who qualify, announces Pat Brindley, center coordinator. Volunteers from the Degree of Honor will be helping with the project.

Recipients are reminded that it is against federal law to trade, give or sell the cheese and milk, Brindley said.

"Some people have abused this program," she said, and "If this continues, there will be no further commodities available. Those abusing the program can be prosecuted, as well as those taking cheese as barter," she warned.

Also on June 28, a W.I.C. clinic will be held at the center. Clients are asked to keep appointments on time.
