Weddings

Cutsforth - Bellinger

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cutsforth

Ann Marie Bellinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bellinger of Hermiston, became the bride of Jerry Orville Cutsforth in an April 16 ceremony at the First Christian Church in Hermiston. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Cutsforth of Heppner. Delbert Troxell officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of organza with a Queen Anne neckline trimmed in silk Venice lace and seed pearls. The full bishop sleeves of English net were trimmed in matching lace. A deep flounced ruffle of Schiffli embroidered net enhanced the hem and fell gracefully into a chapel length train. A panel of Schiffli lace also enhanced the train.

A caplet of silk Venice lace held a two-tiered pencil-edged veil of fingertip length. Silk Venice appliques trimmed the edges.

Maid of honor was Debbie Pimentel. Bridesmaids were Kris Rogerson, Tracie Vanek and Sandi Adams, cousin of the bride. The brides attendants wore identical full-length peach dresses with head wreaths of peach and white flowers.

Best man was Jeff Carlson of Milton-Freewater. Ushers were Jack Bellinger, brother of the bride; Mark Cutsforth, brother of the groom; and Jeff Cutsforth, cousin of the groom.

Wedding music, sung by Melissa Brewer, included "We've Only Just Begun" and "Truly."

A wedding reception was held at the Quarter Master Restaurant at McNary.

Jan and Pam Adams, cousins of the bride, attended the gift table. Alida Eubanks, also a cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Disneyland, the couple is at home in Heppner.

The groom, a graduate of Heppner High School and Eastern Oregon State College, is employed by Fritz Cutsforth Land Company.

The bride graduated from Hermiston High School and is a junior at Eastern Oregon State College.

Yocom - Eddy

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yocom

Paulette Renee Eddy and Jack Richard Yocom were married in a 2 p.m. June 4 ceremony at Highland Park Community Church in Casper, Wyo. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Eddy of Denver, Colo. and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom of Lexington.

The Rev. Oral Withrow officiated at the ceremony.

The bride's floor length gown with train was made of peau de soie and was designed by Sassoon. It had a standing lace collar with a sheer yoke with a deep ruffle edged in lace. A gathered skirt with roses of self fabric fell from a V bodice. The sheer full sleeves had wide cuffs trimmed in lace fastened with tiny self fabric buttons. The sheer derby was covered with matching fabric and lace; the veil was train length of bridal illusion trimmed in lace.

Her designed bouquet of silk flowers consisted of roses, carnations, morning glories, forget me nots, and babies' breath, trimmed in lace and bridal illusion with streamers of ribbon.

Sheri Priest of Denver, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Velda Edney, of Denver, a sister of the bride was bridesmaid.

They both wore lilac gowns, also designed by Sassoon, of peau de soie. The dresses had a self fabric standing collar with V-yokes, set off by a ruffle. The bodice had a V shaped waist and gathered skirt with a hemline ruffle edged in lilac lace. Full length sleeves with wide cuffs were fastened with tiny self fabric buttons.

The maid of honor carried a bouquet of lilac morning glory and white carnations, trimmed in lace, and lilac ribbons. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of lilac morning glory, trimmed in lace, and lilac and pink ribbon.

Best man was Eric Clow of Hermiston. Groomsman was Terry Binfet of Rapid City, South Dakota.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Shawnette Priest, a cousin of the bride, cut cake. Judy Walden served punch. Francette Priest, another cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the couple is at home in Casper, Wyo.

The groom is a 1978 graduate of Heppner High School and is currently employed with Central Contracting of Casper.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Thornton High School, Thornton, Colorado.

'Econo-Eating' from p. 5

Here's a delightful salad filling that can be used in one of those big sandwiches or just served as a salad. It should be kept refrigerated to be safe. It's especially inexpensive when made with turkey hind-quarters.

Summer Poultry Salad
2 cups diced, cooked chicken or turkey
1 cup diced celery
1 cup seedless grapes
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 1/2 teaspoon soy sauce
1/4 teaspoon curry powder
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup seedless grapes
Mix the poultry, celery and grapes together. Then in a separate bowl mix the rest of the ingredients together. Then combine the two mixtures. Serve as a sandwich filling or salad.

Instant Cocoa Mix
3 cups instant dry milk
Two-thirds cups sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
5 tablespoons cocoa
Put milk, sugar and salt in a container. Sift in cocoa. Mix together.

To make cocoa: fill the cup two-thirds full of hot water and then add about one-third cup mix. If the mix is added to the water, there won't be lumps as it's stirred.

Sheriff's Report

The Morrow County Sheriff's Department at the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner handled the following calls, cases and reports during the past week:

On June 27, a 1978 Yamaha motorcycle that had been reported stolen by Oregon State Police in Hermiston was recovered in a field near Peters and Wilson roads in Boardman.

Also on June 27, the Heppner City Police Department responded to a motor vehicle accident at 510 S. Main St. The vehicle was being pushed so it would start on Skyline Drive when it rolled out of control down Chase Street, then veered off to the left across fields where it finally crashed into a house at 510 S. Main. The vehicle was owned by Patty Toombs of Heppner.

On June 28, the Boardman Fire Department responded to a fire south of the West Extension Irrigation District Canal off Paul Smith Road.

Also on June 28, the Morrow County Sheriff's Department took a report of vandalism to a fence at Desert Springs Estates in Boardman. Damage was estimated at $500.

On July 2, LaVerne Van Marter III, of Heppner, reported his 1976 Ford pickup stolen from his residence to the Heppner City Police Department. The vehicle was located on July 3 by the Oregon State Police on a U.S. Forest Service road just inside the Wheeler County line.

On July 3, the Boardman Fire Department responded to a grass fire on Columbia Ave., Boardman.

In a second July 3 incident, that fire department responded to a grass fire underneath the overpass going into the Boardman park.

On July 4, Ralph Neil Beamer, 47, of Heppner, was arrested for allegedly Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants by a sheriff's deputy.
