Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Peck returned home last week from a trip to Juneau, Alaska where they visited their daughter Jeanette.

While there they enjoyed much sightseeing and several plane trips throughout the islands. Sitka was one of the interesting visitations, as it is one of the oldest settlements in North America, and was settled by the Russians. There are many beautiful Russian churches and places of interest there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan spent several days this week in the Portland area.

T.E. Messenger was a patient at Consolidated Good Shephard Hospital in Hermiston last week. He has now returned to his home in Lexington.

Lolita Grace and daughter visited her mother, Betty Marquardt, and other members of her family from her home in Albany recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and sons spent the weekend in the mountains camping.

Hilda Yocom spent several days last week in Walla Walla, Wash. to be with her mother, Venice Hendrickson, who was a patient at a hospital in that city.

Dick Ruhl and son are spending several weeks this summer at the home of Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Ruhl.

The Ruhls had their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Ruhl and girls from Hermiston as guest over the Fourth of July. John Robertson and friends from Bend and Florence Gray of Heppner were also callers over the holiday.

Norman Nelson has returned home after a stay at Kennewick General Hospital where he was receiving medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Marquardt and family from Connell, Wash. were callers at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones attended baptismal services at the First Christian Church in Hermiston Sunday, and later in the day enjoyed a barbecued dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bowen. Also present were Flossie Breeding from the Good Samaritan Center in Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin from Irrigon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones have enjoyed callers over the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Miller, a nephew and his wife from Portland on Friday; Valda Smith and daughters Melissa and Delpha Jo from Hermiston; and Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Helseth of Irrigon on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kuscera and two children were visitors on Monday, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller came on Tuesday. Both families are from Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The meeting place for Wheatland Pomona Grange has been changed from the Spray area, to Cutsforth Park and will be held on Sunday, July 31 with a potluck dinner at noon.

Mrs. Jack Mounts from Gresham has been spending some time with her mother, Freida Majeske, while preparing the house for sale or rental. Mrs. Majeske spends her days at the home, returning to Pioneer Nursing Home in the evenings.

U.S.D.A. gives guidelines for 1984 wheat program

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced general guidelines concerning the provisions of the 1984 wheat program. The program provisions are tentative but he said they will likely fall within these guidelines:

—an acreage reduction of between 20 and 30 percent.

—an additional land diversion of between 20 and 25 percent with a payment-in-kind compensation for farmers who divert additional land.

—an in-kind compensation of between 70 and 80 percent of program yield.

"These points should provide wheat farmers general guidance for planning purposes," Block said. "We had hoped to announce the 1984 wheat program in more detail, but it is impossible to finalize the provisions until Congress completes its consideration of Consumers do ask the same questions year after year as they suddenly realize that not everything mother said about meat was remembered. The basics still need to be told - selection, buying, storage, cooking, nutrition and food safety. These subjects are all covered in the second publication of the American Meat Institute's 1982 "Yellow Pages."

Local woman celebrates 95th birthday

By JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

There was much extra traffic along the Little Butter Creek Road south of Lena last weekend as many friends and relatives traveled to Zetta Brosnan's mobile home to enjoy visiting with her over her 95th birthday. She reports that she really enjoyed seeing the between 50 and 60 who

County Fair & Rodeo

Court spends busy weeks

Luncheons, parades and rodeos have kept the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court busy during the past few weeks.

Queen Lottie Laughlin and princess Sylvia Ladd and Dawn Timms spoke at a Soroptimist luncheon, a Chamber of Commerce luncheon and a senior citizen meal site in Heppner.

The court, along with pennant bearers Dyann Brosnan, Stacey Kennedy, Wendy Skillicorn, Bridgett Greenup and Bobbette Angell, met recently at the Morrow County Fairgrounds for their official pictures.

In between luncheons, the court and pennant bearers participated in the Condon fourth of July Parade and the Crooked River Round-Up in Prineville. A special highlight at Prineville were the horse races. The court was given the honor of leading the horses in the fourth, fifth and sixth races.

The term "yellow pages" has become synonymous with resource and directory information - a place where any bit of information can be located. This is what the American Meat Institute through its Consumer Affairs Committee had in mind when it compiled this resource manual about meat, not only for your own information, but also for consumers. How fortunate for the Morrow County residents; these books can be obtained from the Morrow County CowBelles by simply asking about them.

During the year, many articles cover the recent ambitious public relations program by the beef industry council for those concerned about physical fitness, appearance and those interested in "lighter" eating.

Here is a recipe that will "Lite up your life with the great taste of beef."

Zucchini Lasagna
1 1/2 lbs. lean ground beef
1 large onion, chopped
1 can tomato juice
6 large mushrooms, chopped
2 tps. salt
1 tsp. oregano
1 tsp. Italian herb seasoning
1 pint low fat cottage cheese
2 eggs beaten
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
3 unpeeled zucchini (approx. 6") sliced thin
6 oz. Mozzarella cheese, grated

In large skillet brown ground beef and onion, drain pan. Add tomato paste, tomato juice, mushrooms, salt, oregano and Italian herb seasoning; cover and simmer 15 minutes. Combine cottage cheese, eggs and Parmesan cheese; set aside. In 9" x 13" pan layer as follows: 1/2 beef mixture, 1/2 sliced zucchini, all cottage cheese mixture, other 1/2 sliced zucchini, other 1/2 beef mixture. Bake covered 45 minutes at 350 degrees; uncover and sprinkle with Mozzarella cheese. Bake 15 minutes longer. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

This recipe was provided by the Wallowa County CowBelles.

On Saturday, Zetta's family members who could get there, her son, Jerry, and his wife, Marian, and several of their children and grandchildren and more friends and neighbors came to have another birthday cake and more happy visiting. All weekend Zetta was busy receiving telephone calls and opening birthday cards and gifts. She greatly enjoyed all the visiting and had many interesting things to tell about times gone by.

Zetta Hager, who was born in Heppner in 1888, married John Brosnan in 1908. The young newlyweds started their life together out on Little Butter Creek, where part of their descendants are still operating the ranch.

For awhile, Zetta kept the Lena post office on her front porch. John's parents were the early Irish settlers, Jeremiah and Mary (Gafney) Brosnan, who came to the Morrow County area in the 1870s. Zetta's parents were John and Belle (Wilkins) Hager. He came from Missouri and she came from Vermont. John died almost 30 years ago, in 1952.
