Cards of Thanks 1

Thanks to all of our great neighbors for helping us put out our grain fire. Without your speedy assistance, it would have been much worse. The Robert Kilkenny family 7-21-1f

Words can never express our appreciation and love to all who made our 50th wedding anniversary such a special occasion.

To our friends and relatives, we thank you for all your cards, contributions to our album, attendance at our reception, help, telephone calls and gifts.

To our children and grandchildren, such a lovely tribute to us which we know must have meant careful planning and very hard work, living as far away as you do. And you—and your busy lives!! The reception and dinner afterwards for out-of-town guests were so much enjoyed and beautifully organized. Thank you all for such a memorable occasion. Jim and Madge Thomson 7-21-1f

There were 37 buyers and 56 consignors represented at Thursday's market.

MARKET TREND: Cattle prices were slower which is normal for this time of the year. Buyers were also waiting to hear what the interest rates were going to do, which made them more cautious regarding their purchases. Sheep were stronger this week, mostly due to the lambs not being as full as they were at the last sale.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, July 28th, with no sale to be held on July 21st. Sales will be held each week starting in August. On August 11th, we have a good run of calves with over 300 head of quality calves consigned.

Field Representative: Don Robinson 562-5259
