Kinzua & Local 3-312 negotiate new contract

Kinzua Corporation and Local 3-312 AFL-CIO have negotiated a new three-year contract, which was signed Monday evening, reported Harry Kennison, general manager for Kinzua Corp. Union President Mickey Kindle said the union employees gave up three floating holidays in exchange for a two percent wage increase the first year, a four percent increase the second year and a five percent increase during the third year of the contract. Kindle said the number of union members who turned out to vote was lower than had been expected.

"The local leadership that was demonstrated by the Union was commendable. Kinzua Corporation and management really appreciate the team effort," Kennison said.

Queen Lottie - True Morrow County Royalty

Queen Lottie Laughlin

A true home grown county resident with royalty deep in her roots makes Lottie Laughlin, queen of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo, a perfect choice. Queen Lottie was born and raised on Hinton Creek just out of Heppner. The daughter of Bob (Butch) and Judy Laughlin, the family now resides in Heppner. She has an older sister, Tamie, living in Mosier and a brother, Shane, who just graduated from Heppner High School.

Riding horses was as natural to Lottie as riding a bike. Her love of horses was influenced by her Aunt Colleen and Uncle Don Greenup. She started riding when she was four on her first pony, Blue Mist. As Lottie grew her riding mounts changed as well. They included a buckskin named Buck, a horse called Bubbles Powder Face and Goldie, a palomino mare. Her present horse, BoJo, is a five-year-old sorrel.

She joined 4-H and Wranglers and competed in their shows and placed in the ribbons. She loves to ride on the Greenup ranch on Hinton Creek where she has become a good hand.

row. She was a member of the A Club, Outdoor Club and G.A.B.

Horses and sports are not the only interests on Queen Lottie's mind. She is an accomplished musician, playing all woodwind instruments as well as piano and guitar. She is a junior at Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande, majoring in music. Her music interest grew as former Heppner High School band instructor Jim Ackley guided her music ability. She joined the Ackley Band in the spring and summer of 1981. Lottie is now influencing others as she is teaching piano lessons this summer.

In between teaching lessons and her court activities, Lottie has found time to play softball for a co-ed team this summer. Just a few weeks ago, she broke her finger playing in a tournament.

She also enjoys other activities, including snowmobiling, horseback riding, cooking and swimming. In swimming she was on the Heppner Swim Team for eight years and in 1976 her relay team placed second in the Junior Olympics.

The ambitious queen loves to cook and has found a way to make some money at it. She and her roommate plan to sell "care packages", filled with baked goodies to college students this fall.

Traveling all over Eastern Oregon representing Morrow County has been rewarding to Queen Lottie and her court. Wherever they go their warm smiles and friendly manner is contagious, leaving everyone they meet feeling happy.

There's only one sad note for Queen Lottie this year. She was unable to use her horse, BoJo, who was injured early this spring. She luckily found her Aunt Janie's horse, a beautiful 16 hand registered quarter horse gelding, Sam, a perfect mount.

Queen Lottie invites everyone to the fair and rodeo, to and to visit the court's booth at the fair.

As Lottie makes her official appearances next week, give a friendly smile to this Morrow County queen.
