Sheriff gives Labor Day Weekend traffic tips

With the approach of Labor Day Weekend, Morrow County Sheriff Roy Drago asks all citizens to drive safely and make this holiday period a happy and enjoyable one.

Traditionally during Labor Day, our roadways experience one of the highest traffic flows during the year. By following a few simple rules, drivers could reduce automobile accidents which result in injury and death, Drago said.

According to the sheriff, when an emergency occurs, there is pressure to think quickly and react immediately. To help the conscientious driver prepare before a hazardous situation occurs, the following is suggested:
If your brakes fail, pump the brake pedal quickly. If this does not slow or stop the car, apply the parking brake. If you still cannot stop, shift into a lower gear and pull as far over to the side of the road as you safely can.

If you are blinded by on-coming headlights, slow down. Flick your bright lights, if the vehicle is more than 1,000 feet away, and then lower them. This might remind the on-coming driver to lower his lights. Avoid looking at the glaring lights, look to the edge of the road. Keep as far to the right as you can.

If you begin to skid, gradually take your foot off the gas pedal. Avoid slamming on the brake. Steer in the direction of the skid. When you have stopped skidding, apply the brakes gradually by pumping them. Be ready for a possible counter skid.

If your car catches on fire or if you smell smoke or see flames, pull off the road immediately. Turn off the ignition and get everyone out of the car. Send someone to call the fire department and a law enforcement agency. Keep away from the car in case of an explosion.

If a tire blows out, avoid slamming on the brakes, instead pump lightly on the brake. Grip the steering wheel firmly to guide the vehicle on a straight path. Pull off the road to change the tire, placing flares or triangular warning reflectors behind and in front of your car.

If you have to make an emergency stop, signal and pull off the roadway as carefully as possible. Try to stop at a safe spot as far off the road as possible. Turn on your four-way flasher.

If your car is disabled, set out flares or triangular warning devices and turn on your four way flashers. If you are on a well-traveled highway and safely away from traffic, it is recommended you wait in your car for help. To indicate you need help, raise the hood of your car and tie a white scarf of handkerchief on your door handle or car radio aerial.

These simple tips should not just be followed during peak travel times the Sheriff added, but should be followed year round. By using good, common sense and judgement when driving we can make the roadways in our county and wherever we travel safer.

Thank You
To our dentist, Dr. Thomas Alexander, for all the time and effort you've so freely given to the Doboszynskis.

What's Your Opinion?

Question: "How do you feel this year's Morrow County Fair and Rodeo compares with previous years?"
"The rodeo was better. There were more people there and more contestants at the open show," said Marcia Kemp, Lexington, "The fair attendance was up. I was so upset I missed Helen Cornelius." Also pictured are Tina Kemp, age five (left) and Toni Kemp, age four.

Local 4-H'ers take awards at state fair

Two local girls involved in the creative arts program of 4-H have received championship awards at the State Fair in Salem.

The championship honors went to Tricia Cox of Heppner and to Tiffany Harrison of Lexington in the junior class, for 4-H members in grades four through six.

Another local 4-H'er, Susan Plocharsky of Heppner, took a blue award in decorative painting in the senior division, for 4-H'ers in grades 10 through 12.

A total of 70 F.F.A. members were involved in 218 shop exhibits at the state fair, reports Heppner instructor Roger Records, and 18 members exhibited 41 animals.

Local winners included: Grand Champion Market Steer - Kurt Hellburg, Riverside High School;

Reserve Champion Market Steer - Roger Henry of Heppner High School;

Champion Beef Showman - John Moore, Riverside;

Grand Champion Market Lamb - Kimberle Wright of Heppner;

Reserve Champion Market Lamb - Kimberle Wright of Heppner;

Champion Sheep Showman - Kimberle Wright, Heppner;

Champion Dairy Showman - Bridgett Greenup of Heppner;

Champion Goat Showman - Dwight Osborne of Riverside; and

All-around Showman - Bridgett Greenup of Heppner.

In the advanced livestock judging, Mac-Hi placed first, Pendleton, second, and Heppner third.

The High Individual Advanced Award went to Gina Miller of Mac-Hi, Milton-Freewater.

In beginning Livestock teams Heppner took first place, followed by Mac-Hi in second.

High Individual Beginner was Travis Harrison of heppner.

Jay Hayes placed first in one event and seventh overall at the state F.F.A. Tractor Driving Contest on Sunday, Aug. 28.

Hayes won the pallet loading event and will receive a trophy for his efforts. He placed seventh out of 35 contestants in the state finals.

Other events at the contest included Tractor maneuvering, Tractor Loading, Cultivator Exercise, and a Written Test.

In order to qualify for the state contest, he had to place in the top four of the district contest which was held in Milton-Freewater last May.

More State Fair results will be published as they become available.
