

Jim Thomsons receive Yard of Month award

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson

By JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

The last Yard of the Month winners for Heppner this year are Mr. and Mrs. James G. Thomson, Jr., of 155 South Court Street. Their oversized yard has been extra colorful this year with blooms from early spring until now. They were selected to be honored by the Heppner Garden Club and the Heppner-Morrow Chamber of Commerce from Sept. 15 until Oct. 15.

The home they occupy was built in 1918 by the senior J.G. Thomsons. Jim and Madge, along with Meredith 11, Bernice 7, and Bruce 4, moved there in 1950 when they purchased the house from Jim's sisters and brother. For a time they were busy removing overgrown shrubbery and some large rocks. They put in a cement patio behind the house and expanded the lawn area. The trumpet vine with its attractive orange blooms which climbs up the southside of their front porch and some of the daffodils in the yard were planted by Jim's mother, Agnes.

This year is the first in which the Thomsons have had a border of petunias lining their front walk. The fine rosebushes along the fence beside their driveway were planted in 1981 when they put in the cement driveway and parking area. The brilliant black-eyed Susans along the Court Street sidewalk have multiplied until they now present almost a solid line of gold.

Both of the Thomsons love roses—and they especially like spring bulbs and gladiolus, too. Madge says that pink roses are her favorites. Besides keeping up the large yard and the flowers, Jim has a small vegetable garden toward the back of their lot. They have a damson plum tree, two apricot trees and a new Granny Smith apple tree that came as an anniversary gift.

All the members of the Thomson family and the other guests who came to attend their summer 50th anniversary celebration praised their pretty yard which is still looking delightful as fall approaches.

Beneficial insect identified

By BOB COSTA

OSU Extension Agent

An insect that stripped the leaves and flowers from poison hemlock plants this summer was identified as Agonopterix alstroemeriana. This giant name belongs to a tiny moth whose small green larvae has a tremendous appetite for poison hemlock.

The insects were collected near Heppner in Morrow County. The insects were also active in neighboring counties.

According to the U.S.D.A. Insect Identification and Beneficial Insect Introduction Institute, poison hemlock is the only plant this insect is known to feed on. The institute identified the insect specimens from Morrow County.

The insect is native to Eurasia and is found from England to Japan. It was introduced into North America twice for poison hemlock control. This is the first report of the insect from the west coast according to the U.S.D.A. Institute.

The long term effect of this insect on poison hemlock in our area is unknown.

PIK means income... and taxes!

Let Edward D. Jones & Co. show you the right tax-free investments to protect your PIK dollars.

This year, the federal government has taken some of the guesswork out of farming with its Payment-in-kind program. They've guaranteed a certain amount of commodity you'll have available to sell. Sounds good, doesn't it?

But here's something else they've guaranteed—you'll still have to pay taxes on that PIK income.

So, this year, while your production costs are down and while you've got some guaranteed income, let Edward D. Jones & Co. show you how to keep those PIK dollars in your pocket—with careful, conservative, tax-free and tax-advantaged investments.
