Delpha Jones 989-8189

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening starting with a bountiful potluck dinner. The program started at 7:30 and was a most interesting talk and slide show on Taiwan by Shu-Ling-Yen, an extension service specialist on an exchange program to Oregon. The talk and slides were well received with the audience asking many questions.

Following the program the meeting was called to order by the Overseer, Lyle Peck. Introduced were Morton Wolverton, Eastern Oregon State Deputy from Hermiston, and Wheatland Pamona Deputy Delpha Jones. Each of the guests spoke on the work of the grange and the coming elections in the grange, both on a state, Pamona and Subordinate levels. Try to elect the person best suited to the position and with the best qualifications, they said.

Many issues were discussed and a resolution committee of O.W. Cutsforth, Earl Papineau and Glover Peck was formed to draft these and present them.

A discussion was held concerning garage sales and flea markets, and how to protect yourself from buying stolen articles at these sales.

The Blue Mountain Fiddlers' Concert on Oct. 15, and the Morrow County Historical Society's annual meeting to be held at the Lexington Grange Hall Oct. 2 were announced. There will be special music provided by Doug and Norita Marquardt, and a talk and slide show by Antone Minthorn, chairman of the Federated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation. Dancers and music are also scheduled.

Pamona Grange will meet in Lexington on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Friends were grieved to hear of the recent death of Zearl Gillespie at Consolidated Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston. He was the brother-in-law of Leita Messenger. Those from Lexington attending the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, Sr.; Ray Barlow from Eugene, a brother of Mrs. Messenger; Gerry and Sue Messenger from Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and son Phillip; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Marquardt; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Randy Hughes; Sheree Smith; Pam Piper; Debbie Miller; and Jeff Fortenberry.

Mr. and Ms. Jim Bloodsworth entertained at their ranch home with a birthday party and dinner honoring the three grandchildren: Kevin, Kasia, and Kent, on their birthdays. Those present were the children's parents, Carlita and Jim Bloodsworth, Betty Marquardt, Pam Piper, Sherrie and Bob Smith and daughter, Ray and Debbie Miller and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Romanda and Jessica, Mrs. Evelyn Warren and Kin and Dennis, along with the host and hostess and the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones were Bend visitors on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huber had a lovely dinner and day of visiting recently when they and their children were together for the first time in 10 years. Those present with their parents were: Marianne and John Brams and children Dylan and Nicole of Beaverton; David and Pat Huber from Denver, Colo.; Gary Huber from Walla Walla, Wash.; Lucy and Roger Davis, Wenatchee, Wash. The family reports a lovely time.

Pat Wright and Sandi, and Phillis Piper and daughter attended a rabbit show at Thompson Hall in Hermiston on Saturday. There were 500 rabbits in the show, and the Morrow County group came away with several honors. Kim McCabe of Ione won best of breed for a French lop. Shawn Hams won best of breed for Dutch, Sandi Wright won best of breed for Jan. Sandi also is now the proud owner of a pygmy goat won in a drawing. This group of kids belongs to the Rise and Shine Rabbit Club in Boardman.

Earl Papineau is home after a few days' stay in Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Robert Steagall is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Hospital, suffering from some broken bones.

Dates to remember:

The Friday evening hunters' supper and Saturday morning breakfast at the Lexington I.O.O.F. Hall. Even if you're not a hunter, come on out and enjoy some pancakes.

The Morrow County Historical Society meeting on Oct. 2 at the Lexington Grange Hall. Dinner will be at 1 p.m., followed by an interesting program, music by Norita Marquardt and brother Doug, and slides and talks on Indian culture and drummers and dancers from the Umatilla Indian Reservation.

The first fall card party at the Rebekah Lodge Hall will be held on October 1, at 8 p.m. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.
