LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Cold hospital rooms

To the editor:
 I spent a week in the hospital and want to thank Dr. Wolff and the nurses for their excellent care and patience with me.
 I am writing to complain about the cold shower and bathrooms. Those lights don't heat the rooms and you sit, shake and shiver all the time with the cold.
 It has been this way for a long time but I guess no one complained. After two showers, the pain came back again, and I refused to go back to those cold rooms until they put more heat in the rooms.
 Anyone with arthritis knows you have to keep very warm, so I came home.
 Yours truly,
 Zetta Brosnan
