Makers and Bakers 4-H Club meets

By BENJI PEARSON

The Makers and Bakers 4-H Club met at the home of their leader, Chloe Pearson, on October 21. We made macaroni and cheese. We also cooked frozen vegetables and cut up some apples and put caramel on them. We are in phase III, in which we cook quick meals.

There are two people in our club, Susan Plocharsky and Benji Pearson. For the last meeting, we each brought a guest.

Since there are only two people in the club, our leaders says there is still time to join our club. We're going to cover Food Preparation, Phases III and IV this year.

Anyone interested in joining may call the extension office in Heppner, 676-9642, or Chloe Pearson, 676-9830.

Christmas Cotillion tickets now available

Tickets for the 15th annual Christmas Cotillion, "Deck the Halls," a gala benefit ball for the American Cancer Society are now on sale. The event will be held Saturday, Dec. 5, from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the Pendleton Armory, announced Tiny Collins, publicity chairman.

Tickets may be purchased on a first-come-first-serve basis by sending a $30 check per couple, payable to the American Cancer Society, to Christmas Cotillion, 1230 N.W. King, Pendleton, Oregon 97801. A portion of the ticket price, $26.50, is tax deductible as a contribution to the cancer society, Collins said. Persons wishing to be seated with friends should include all checks together in one envelope and should specify names of persons they wish at the table, she added.

The music for the ball will be provided by the Many Sounds of Nine, a Moses Lake, Washington based dance band.

Ione Grand Squares hold Halloween dance

The Ione Grand Squares dance club sponsored a Halloween dance on Friday, Oct. 28, at the American Legion Hall in Ione. Steve and Karen Ree of Condon and Bob and Julie Greisen of Cecil hosted the event.

Dick Pentecost from the Swap and Swing Square Dance Club of The Dalles was caller. About 64 dancers from the Ione, The Dalles, Goldendale, Wash. and Hermiston clubs attended, reported a spokesperson for the Ione club.

The hall was decorated in a Halloween motif and bouquets of chrysanthemums and candy corn adorned the tables. In charge of the decorations were Lloyd and Shirley McNary, Dorothy Warren and Daisy Collins.

Prior to the dance, a potluck supper was served at George and Lorene Griffith's home at morgan.

Local women invited to join craft sessions

By NEOLA MACKEY

Any woman who would like to join the ladies who attend a Thursday craft and social time at the Heppner Neighborhood Center will be welcomed. The group will be working all day from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday, November 10 and November 17, to get ready for the Artifactory. Ladies are asked to bring sack lunches. Ladies from All Saints' Episcopal Church in Heppner will host the socials during the month of November.

The emergency food supply at the center is extremely low on canned soup and fruit. All donations will be appreciated.

The center will be closed on Friday, Nov. 11, to observe Veterans' Day.

Cotton growing, which originated in India, was taken to Greece by Alexander the Great.

Bishop to visit All Saints' on Sunday

The Rt. Rev. Rusty Kimsey, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon, will make his annual visitation to All Saints' Episcopal Church in Heppner on Sunday, Nov. 6, announced the Rev. Ed Watts, vicar. The Bishop will be the celebrant at the Eucharist and will also preach.

There will be a confirmation and licensing of lay readers during the service, which will be followed by a potluck dinner in the parish hall for all church members. Watts reports.

A Bishop's Committee meeting will follow the dinner, he said.

Livestock club announces change in

The North Lexington 4-H Livestock Club announces that their Judging Day has been changed from November 6 to Sunday, Nov. 13 at 2 p.m. All Morrow County 4-H clubs are invited to meet at the McNab Junction, north of Ione, said a club spokesperson. Steer and heifer selections will be covered during the day. Classes will also be set up to practice judging.

Family members as well as 4-H'ers are invited. For directions, call or stop by Bill Broderick's home in Ione before 2 p.m. on Nov. 13.

Gold topic of miner's meeting

"Jewelry Making and Profits: Turn Your Gold into Cash" is the topic of a talk scheduled at the November 4 meeting of the Eastern Oregon Mining Association (EOMA), announced Charles (Chuck) Chase, president.

Bill Cole, a Pendleton resident and EOMA vice-president, will demonstrate at the 7 p.m. meeting how he makes jewelry from the gold he mines and purchases.

Directors of the Baker-based, non-profit organization will meet at 4 p.m. that same date. The general meeting will occur at the National Guard Armory building in Baker. The public is invited.

Offered for sale at the meeting will be five more 1983 one-ounce gold commemorative medallions. Made of native gold, the five EOMA medallions are of a limited edition. The die will be destroyed December 31, ensuring lasting value for coin collectors. Cost of the coins is roughly $450, but is set according to the daily London spot price, plus $10, according to Chase. This is the second year the EOMA has offered the limited edition coins. One hundred were sold last year before that coin's die was destroyed.

Further information about the coins is available by contacting George Spears at 523-5681 (Baker), or Lee Priest at 523-3421.

The Deereslayer.

A lot of farmers like John Deere tractors, and it's hard to argue. Deere makes a good product. But when you compare a Deere four-wheel-drive with a Steiger, some really important differences stand out.

More drawbar horsepower.

For example, look at the Steiger Panther CP1360 versus the Deere 8850. Although the Deere is rated with 10 more engine horsepower, @ 2100 rpm the Steiger puts 19 more horsepower to work at the drawbar. And at lower rpm the Steiger gives you up to 27 more drawbar horsepower.

With the Steiger 12-speed full power-shift, you clutch only to start up. With a Deere Quad-Range, you have to clutch 8 times to cover all the gears.

Greater fuel efficiency.

There are other differences. The Steiger is 25% quieter in the cab, has 8.4% greater fuel efficiency, and a rugged state-of-the-art, in-line six-cylinder engine that gives you more torque rise than the Deere.

We invite you to compare.

Because all arguments aside, when you look at performance and specs, it's evident why Steiger is the best value in four-wheel-drives.

Comparison figures from official tests and manufacturer's published data.

LITE UP YOUR LIFE WITH THE WESTERN LITE BROIL.

Thin-sliced beef in a savory marinade. Delicious!

- |   |                                   |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| 1 to 1 1/2 pounds Beef Top Round, Sirloin, or Flank Steak | 2 tablespoons honey               |
| 1/2 cup soy sauce   | 2 green onions, chopped           |
| 1/4 cup water   | 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder        |
| 2 tablespoons lemon juice                                 | 1 tablespoon toasted sesame seeds |

Combine soy sauce, water, lemon juice, honey, green onions and garlic powder; stir thoroughly. Pour marinade over steak; turn to coat both sides thoroughly. Cover and marinate in refrigerator 24 hours; turn occasionally. Broil or grill only to medium rare. Cut across grain into thin slices and sprinkle lightly with sesame seeds. Serve with salad or vegetable.

Makes 3 servings per pound.
