There were 43 buyers and 77 consignors represented at Thursday's market.

MARKET TREND: The market didn't hit the highs of the last 2 week's sales on light calves with fewer individual and more order buyers purchasing them. Yearlings were selling steady to stronger. Heifers were steady with last week's prices although earlier in the week they were reported to have dropped off. Cows held steady with No. 1 bulls selling $2.00 stronger.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, December 1st with 300 head of Bred Stock Cows consigned for this sale. Also consigned are 150 head of 650 lb. steers and heifers, 150 head of 500 weight calves, and 60 head of cross-bred light calves. There will not be a sale this coming Thursday, November 24th, as this falls on Thanksgiving Day. However, the entire staff of La Grande Livestock hopes you have an enjoyable day with family and friends.
