Heppner woman celebrates 100th

Nellie Blanchat

A Heppner woman, Nellie Blanchat, turned 100 years old last Friday, Nov. 25. A resident of Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home, Mrs.

Blanchat was born in Iowa and traveled west to Oregon by train and wagon with her family when she was three years old. Her father built the first school between Ontario and Vale, which she attended.

She married and had two daughters and a son, all now deceased. Mrs. Blanchat helped to raise her grandchildren and some great-grandchildren, recalls Jane Richards, one of Mrs. Blanchat's grandchildren.

She worked in a ship yard on Swan Island, Wash. during World War II and also worked as a waitress in the formal dining room at Timberline Lodge and other restaurants.

She enjoyed needle work and cross word puzzles.

Her family was here to greet her on her birthday and the Pioneer Memorial Hospital Auxiliary gave her a party complete with a decorated birthday cake on Monday, Nov. 28.

The sport of skiing is said to have begun in Telemark, Norway about 1860.

Over $1,000 raised at benefit game

About $1,000 in donations was taken in at the door at a benefit basketball game last Friday night for Doug and Darwin Anstogui of Heppner. Two brothers occupied a home that burned in a November 11 fire.

Four teams of city league basketball players took each other on in two games with a large crowd of spectators cheering on their favorite teams. John Kilkenny's team won over Greg Johnston's squad, and in the second game, Gar Aviation prevailed over a team of recently graduated HHS men.

Many door prizes, donated by local merchants, were given away at half time and the JHS Dance Team as well as the Heppner High Band performed.

Funds were also raised at a concession stand, and along with other donations received, a total of $1,110 was presented to the Anstoguis.
