What's Your Opinion?

Question: "Do you think seat belts should be required on all school buses and vans?"
"No, I don't," said Ritchie Wilson of Heppner, "you could get really messed up if you get trapped in a bus with a seat belt on. I can see it required in a car, but it would be really hard for a bus driver to keep kids in a seat belt."

FACTS & FIGURES

Eleven U.S. Presidents could trace their roots to Northern Ireland. That's not the only reason, however, that American business executives are increasingly exploring the possibilities of this lovely land as the base for penetrating the European Economic Community markets. Three of the reasons most cite for the move are: high and rapid return on investment; labor stability and productivity; generous financial incentives that include tax-free grants.

Rolling Hills Run proceeds to benefit pool project

The third annual Rolling Hills Walk-Run will be held on Sunday, April 8. The run committee met last Wednesday and agreed to donate the proceeds from the event to help pay the costs of a solar heating system at the Heppner Swimming Pool. The heating system was a project sponsored by the Heppner Lions Club.

The run, which will begin at 1 p.m., will begin at Heppner Elementary School, loop up and back along the Pilot Rock Highway, finishing at Heppner City Park. There will be a 3.1 and a 6.2 mile course along the route.

Rolling Hills Run T-shirts and certificates will be awarded to all finishers. (See information regarding entry fees). Top finishers for each course will also receive trophies and ribbons.

Cost to enter the event will be $6 per person if registration is completed by March 16, or $7 after that date. Those participants who do not wish to receive a T-shirt may pay a $4 fee before March 16, or $5 after that date. Also, there will be a lower entry fee for families who have over two members participating.

An awards assembly will be held in the multipurpose room at Heppner Elementary School following the run.

"The event is a walk-run for both the novice and experienced runner," said a committee spokesperson.

For more information, contact Liz Curtis, 676-9454.

The run is being sponsored by the Morrow County Education Association.

More details will be announced as they become available.
