'God's Prison Gang' to be shown Sunday

"God's Prison Gang," a newly released film featuring Al Capone's getaway driver, the last member of Bonnie and Clyde's gang and two other notorious criminals who have become Christians, will be shown at the First Christian Church, 293 N. Gale St., on Sunday, Feb. 19. The showing is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., says the Rev. Don Shelton, pastor of the church.

The film, shot behind the walls of New York's Attica prison, is hosted by Art Linkletter. It tells the story of the work International Prison Ministries is accomplishing; what more guards, higher prison walls and greater financial expenditures have failed to do-keep released in-were Helen Crawford and Cecil Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson visited their granddaughter, Debbie Sharp, in Walla Walla on Monday. They report that she is showing improvement after major surgery a couple of weeks ago.

The Three Links Club met at the home of Joyce Buchanan on Thursday for a regular meeting with an election of officers as the main business of the day. Elected to office were: Dorothy Burcham - chairman, Frances Peck - vice-chairman, and Kathy Tellechea - Secretary.

Plans were discussed for the president's visit.

Those present other than the newly elected officers were Virginia Peck, Leila Palmer, Hilda Yocom, Ruth Robinson, Eula Bloodsworth, Annetta Padberg and the hostess.

The next meeting will be at Leila Palmer's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt returned home Saturday after a week's stay in Portland with their daughters Charma and Norita, who both had recent eye surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Messenger and John McConnell attended a potluck dinner at the Christian Church in Heppner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kilkenny entertained with a dinner on Sunday honoring her father, Delbert Emert, on his birthday. Several guests attended.

mates from returning to lives of crime.

Telling their stories in the 44-minute film are George Meyer, Al Capone's favorite driver; Floyd Hamilton, (Public Enemy No. 1) the last of the Bonnie and Clyde gang; Jerry Graham, the "robber king" of California; and Ted Jefferson, convicted of crimes from drugs and robbery to murder, Shelton says.

Also featured is "Chaplain Ray," whose Dallas-based International Prison Ministry has changed the lives of thousands of inmates over the past 18 years.

Shelton says he hopes all citizens concerned about the problem of rising crime will attend the free screening of the film.

Special speaker slated at Heppner Nazarene

A special service will be held at the Heppner Nazarene Church on Sunday, Feb. 19, at 6 p.m. Guest speaker will be Juan R. Vazquez-Pla. He is an ordained minister of the Church of the Nazarene in Puerto Rico. Presently he is the coordinator of Latin American Media Resources for media services including the division of communications. He is also the director of radio and television for the Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean region, and for the South American region.

The Rev. Floyd Wilks, pastor of the Heppner church, worked with Vazquez-Pla while on a mission in Costa Rica two years ago.

Juan Vazquez-Pla

Wilks said Vazquez-Pla will discuss missionary work in Costa Rica, and a slide show has been tentatively scheduled.
