What's Your Opinion?

Question: "Do you think relations between the U.S. and Russia will improve now that Russia has a new premier?"

"I hope so, but I really have no way of knowing," said LaVerne Van Marter, Jr. of Heppner, "At least we now have the possibility that it will improve."

Sunday school teachers' workshop slated

The Sunday School staff at Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner will hold a workshop for Sunday school teachers on Wednesday, Feb. 15, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The meeting will be held downstairs at the church, announced the Rev. John Maas, pastor.

Sunday school superintendants Phyllis Payne and Sue Evans extend an invitation to any religious education teachers and leaders in the area to be part of the workshop.

The Hope Sunday school staff has found it very useful to take time in their teachers meetings to simply talk about what's working and what isn't. They think it would be mutually helpful if many of the Sunday school staffs from our area got together and did the same thing – shared what they're doing and how it's going, explained Maas.

Hope Lutheran Church is located right next to the Willow Creek Dam in Heppner on the corner of Alfalfa and Cowins streets. More information is available from either Payne or Evans, or from the church office 676-5069 or 676-9940.

"This event is in no way an attempt to present or sell any type of material or doctrinal stance," Maas clairified.

Yard of Month winners

By DELPHA JONES

The Ione Garden Club met on Wednesday at the United Church of Christ in Ione for a regular meeting and to honor the Yard of the Month winners for last year.

A short business meeting was held, at which time the district meeting date was announced, and a trip to visit gardens in Portland was discussed. This trip is being planned for the second week in May.

The following Yard of the Month winners received printed certificates: Janet and Dennis Thompson, March winners; Loree and Bob Hubbard, April winners; Irene and Leo Crabtree, May winners; Helen and Paul Pettyjohn, June winners; Mrs. Elba Akers, July winner; Vera Rietmann, August winner; Hugh Salter, winner for September; and Herb and May Ekstrom, October's winners.

The garden club will entertain at Pioneer Memorial Nurshing Home the first Monday in March. The chairman asked that canceled stamps be brought to the next garden club meeting or to the district meeting.

Roll call was answered with members stating landscaping problems.

Pat Pettyjohn announced that Smokey the Bear and Mr. Jones from the Forest service had visited the Ione school's the past week.

Refreshments, including a cake decorated with roses in pastel colors and the words "Congratulations Gardeners, and punch and coffee were served. The entertainment was beautiful slides of the winning yards, and in comparison, houses from the various countries: Alaska, Turkey, South Africa, England, Mexico, India and others. These were shown by Helen Martin from the fine collection of slides she and her husband, Fred have taken during their various travels.

Mustangs downed by Stanfield

By TRAVIS HYATT

The Heppner Mustangs were only down by four points going into the final quarter but their defense broke down, they were outscored 18-9, and the number one defensive team in the league handed the Mustangs their third straight defeat in a 48-35 victory Saturday night at Stanfield.

"I thought we played an excellent three quarters. We forced things too much on offense and made some critical defensive errors," said Coach Heppner Brent Eggers.

The Mustangs are now 4-7 in league and will play their final game at home Friday against Pilot Rock at 8 p.m.

The Mustangs only trailed at the half by three and were still very much in the game after the third quarter. But led by the free throw shooting of Mike Whelan, who was 6-6 in the quarter, the Tigers pulled ahead to stay in the lead.

Both teams committed very few turnovers; Heppner had just 13 and Stanfield 14.

Forwards Scott Nevil and Steve Porter combined for 30 points for Stanfield. Rod Cole pumped in 11 points and grabbed five rebounds for the losers.

Grand Squares hold Valentine's dance

The Grand Squares dance club of Ione held a Valentine dance at the Ione American Legion Hall last Saturday, Feb. 11.

The hall was decorated with cupids, hearts, lace doilies, and red and white streamers. Towers of red balloons served as centerpieces in the dining room.

Eight squares of dancers participated in the event including two squares from The Muddy club of Milton-Freewater and guests from the Square Knots of Hermiston. The Milton-Freewater group took the Ione club's banner home when they left, inviting the Grand Squares to come visit them for a dance and retrieve the banner.

Also attending were Ed and Viola Foster of Cascade Locks. Mr. Foster was caller for the evening.

In charge of the decorations were Jack and Cindy Osterlund and Bob and Julie Greisens. The refreshment committee included Dorothy Warren, Tom Hughes, Muriel and Marvin Epley and Joyce Susalko.

Tools and hardware hand-picked for tough farm use.

The right tools and hardware with the right quality at the right price: that's your CENEX Co-op. Because it stands to reason that a farmer-owned supply cooperative knows more about what farmers and ranchers want in tools and hardware than a shopping-mall discount store.

Whether you're looking for an extra pair of gloves or a complete master mechanic's workshop, simple garden hose or an 18 H.P. garden tractor with all the trimmings, your CENEX Co-op has it for you. Choose from thousands of hardware items sped through a distribution system that's computerized for extra efficiency in delivering the goods. All hand-picked to insure quality that can stand up to rugged farm use.

You can't keep a farm in top operating condition without the right tools and hardware. Count on your CENEX Co-op to know your hardware needs best. After all, it's another reason farmers built CENEX.
