

Dance to live music at the Elks Lodge Sat.

Stoddard and Longshore

If you feel like dancing to celebrate St. Patrick's Day this Saturday, be sure to stop by the Heppner Elks' Lodge where the duo Stoddard and Longshore will be performing.

Stoddard and Longshore, veterans of the music business, both have enough credits on their own to prove their ability.

Joe Stoddard has worked with such big name artists as The Beach Boys, Pat Boone, Hoyt Axton, Rick Nelson, Sons of the Pioneers, Pablo Cruise, Brenda Lee, B.J. Thomas, and many others.

Larry Longshore began playing professionally during his high school years. He received a college music scholarship and received a B.A. in Music in 1975. He has been performing steadily since then in the United States, Canada and Europe.

First together in 1978, Stoddard and Longshore have formed a unique blend of music and comedy. Taking their high energy show to a variety of audiences, including fairs, concerts, clubs and conventions, they have shown
