Local ministers attend seminar

Members of the South Morrow County Ministerial Association attended a seminar designed to address ethical and moral questions and issues raised by modern technology. The seminar, reported a spokesperson, was held at the Walla Walla General Hospital on April 4. Dr. Gerald Winslow, professor of ethics at Walla Walla College, presented "Ethics at Life's Edge: New Trends in Biomedical Ethics" and "Deciding When Enough is Enough: Decisions to Forego Life-Sustaining Therapy." Dr. Herbert Douglass from Washington, D.C. will present "How to Survive the 80s."
The seminar is one of a continuing series sponsored by the Ministerial Department of the Seventh-day Adventist Church which are held throughout the United States and Canada. Clergymen and priests from a wide spectrum of religious persuasions participate in these seminars which are presented as a service to the spiritual leaders of our country.

Garden Club plans sale

The Ione Garden Club is planning a plant sale Tuesday, April 17 from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Ione Legion Hall.
A spokesperson for the event says that the club will have hardy perennials, bulbs, berries, house plants, flowering shrubs, herbs and vegetables for sale. Pie and coffee will be served throughout the day.

Senior News

Anna Mae Steagall is busily planning several outstanding programs for after dinner entertainment as the Heppner Senior Citizen Mealsite.

On Wednesday noon, April 11, "The Making of a Great Time," a 20 minute slideshow with music will be shown by Americana Tours of Walla Walla, Washington. Experts from the tour service will be present to answer questions about the fun tours that they offer to senior sightseers. This company will arrange departures and returns to Heppner.

On Wednesday noon, April 18, the mealsite will offer a super Easter Week meal. Anna Mae is enlisting help from some style-conscious ladies in preparing "An Easter Bonnet Parade" after the dinner that day. She suggests that ladies who have favorite hats they would like to model might have them ready to show that day.

Announcements at the mealsite begin at 11:30 a.m. each Wednesday (unless otherwise announced) with dinner served promptly at 12 noon to allow time for entertainment.

Any senior citizen desiring a noon carry out meal on Wednesdays is asked to call Cherie Clark, 676-5222, or Bill Collins, 676-9947.

Heppner seniors needing a ride to the mealsite should call Mary Nikander, 676-5571, to make arrangements.

Ione and Lexington residents needing a ride to Heppner on Wednesdays are asked to call Dot Halvorsen, 422-7143, to make arrangements.

Seniors attending the noon meal at the mealsite are not charged for transportation. Those riding the bus from Ione, and who are over 60 and do not attend the meal at the mealsite are charged 75 cents round trip. Cost for commuters under 60 is $1.50.

Retired educators meet Sat.

Unit 9 Oregon Retired Educators Association will meet Saturday, April 7 at the White Eagle Grange Hall, 12 miles south of Pendleton on the Piolet Rock Highway reports a spokesperson for the organization. A business meeting is scheduled for 11 a.m., lunch at noon and the program at 1 p.m. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Eleanor Sanders is program chairman. Gene Hallman, Pendleton attorney, will speak on Consumers Affairs. Wayne McGowan is in charge of the music.

Hostess committee is Wayne and Doris McGowan, Opal Carnes, Jennie Heimuller and Wanda Bracher.

May 15, 16 and 17 the Unit is planning a tour to the Pacific Science Center in Seattle for the exclusive showing of "China, 7000 Years of Discovery." This tour is open to members and friends. Call 276-1056 or 276-4727 for further information.

Child I.D. Program

Local clubs to fingerprint kids

The Heppner Lion's, Heppner Soroptimists and the Heppner - Ione American Association of University Women wish to again remind the community of their joint child identification and fingerprint project to be held at the Heppner elementary cafeteria room on April 11 and 12, 1984.

The clubs ask that children be brought according to the following schedule: children with last names ending with A-F, from 5 to 6:30 p.m., April 11; children with last names ending with G-M, from 6 to 7:30 p.m., April 11; children with last names from N-S, from 5 to 6:30 p.m., April 12; and children with last names T-Z, from 6 to 7:30 p.m., April 12.

Children and parents of children to be fingerprinted should not wear white or dress clothes. All children need permission slips of a parent or legal guardian before being printed. A permission slip will go home with all elementary school children. The clubs ask that the permission slips be brought with the children to be fingerprinted. Also, permission slips will be available at the cafeteria room on April 11 and 12.

The project will provide parents with a set of fingerprints and a packet of materials to aid in the easy identification of a child in the event of his or her disappearance. No fingerprints or copies of fingerprints will be kept by the clubs or any police agencies stresses a spokesperson for the clinic.

Little league tryout set April 14 & 21

Willow Creek Little League will hold registration and tryouts April 14 and April 21 at the Little League fields in Heppner and Ione announced a spokesperson.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and tryouts will start at 10 a.m. Anyone between the ages of 9 and 12 and not already on a team is invited to attend the tryouts.

Registration cards will be available at Heppner and Ione schools during the week prior to tryouts. A birth certificate and parents signature will be necessary when the registration cards are turned in.

For further information, contact Bob Krein 676-9956 or Judy Osmin 989-8221 about the Heppner teams. Questions concerning the Ione teams should be directed to Kim Gutierrez, 676-5052.

What's Your Opinion?

Question: "Were you surprised to see all three budget levies (the county, the school district and MCCC) pass in the primary?"
"Yes," said Maud Hughes of Heppner. "They normally just never pass the first time around."

Car wash benefits Heifer project

The Ecumenical Youth Group is planning to wash cars Saturday, April 7 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Cal's Mobil Station in Heppner.

Proceeds from the car wash will be used to continue the group's outreach to the Heifer Project which according to a spokesperson, they have been participating in for three years now.

The Heifer Project is a non-denominational, international agency which sends young calves and goats and also seeds for crops to third world countries. The goal of the project is to help the countries develop their own adequate food supplies by helping them to increase their herds and crops.

USDA Extension sponsors essay contest

By Steve Campbell
OSU Extension Agent
Morrow County
A national essay contest about "Food: America's Growth Industry" is underway for young people between the ages of 13 and 18 as part of the national Food and Fitness campaign of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.
Any young woman or man in that age group is eligible to enter. The 500-word essays will be judged for originality, correctness of information, use of standard writing style, appropriateness of content and neatness by the USDA Extension Service.
The contest is an attempt to make young people aware of the importance of the U.S.

agricultural industry and how food relates to physical and emotional well-being while allowing them to demonstrate creative writing abilities and research and interview skills.
Those entering the contest may draw upon materials from many sources including the OSU Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and other USDA agencies, agricultural organizations, libraries, schools, or food processors or distributors.
Community, county, state and national awards will be made in the 13-14, 15-16 and 17-18 age categories. Local winners will receive certificates. County winners will receive medals, state winners will receive plaques and national winners will receive trips to Washington, D.C. where trophies and prizes will be presented by the Secretary of Agriculture.
Morrow County young people must file their completed essay with the county Extension office by April 15. Entries must include the author's complete name, address and date of birth. The entry must be signed by the individual making the entry and the parent or guardian certifying it is the work of the person making the official entry.
Additional details about the contest are available from the Morrow County Extension office in Heppner, phone: 676-9642.

City Planning Comm. meeting set Apr. 9

The Heppner City Planning Commission regular meeting will be held on April 9, 1984 at Heppner City Hall. The commission chairman says the agenda includes:
1. Consider a Conditional Use permit to allow a mobile home to be placed on Block 2, Wells Addition to the City of Heppner. This is the Gundersen property located on the Heppner-Spray Highway, zoned R-2.
2. Consider a Conditional

Use permit to allow a mobile home to be placed on Lot 5, Block 6, Ayers 4th Addition. This is the Bill Lynch property located at 495 S. Graen, zoned R-2.
3. Annexation of the Barbara Angell property located south and west of the Heppner Cemetery.
A study session is set for 7:30 p.m. with the regular session beginning at 8 p.m.
The City Council representative for April is Les Paustian.

School district expresses concern for curriculum

The State Board of Education met last Thursday, March 29 in Salem and approved the proposed increase in state graduation requirements from one to two units of math and science for the graduating class of 1986. The change also increases the total no. of required units from 21 to 22.
Morrow Co. School District Superintendent Matt Doherty reported that all the high schools in Morrow County already meet the proposed requirements as long as there is sufficient student interest in that particular school.

The Morrow County School District, states a news release from the district office, works continuously on improving its programs of instruction. One means for doing this is through curriculum improvement project work done during the summer of each year.
The procedure followed is that a curriculum area is identified which needs to be reviewed and developed. A designated district administrator and a group of interested teachers prepare a proposal for a project to work on improving a curriculum in the identified area. The project proposal is presented to a district committee known as the Curriculum Steering Committee which considers all proposed projects for a given year and approves those which have the greatest value for the district. The committee consists of a representative group of teachers and administrators from all of the district's schools and the district superintendent.

Funds for curriculum improvement projects are budgeted to pay for teachers' wages for extra time worked during the summer on developing new or updated programs for the district. The budget for 1984-85 provides $6,000 to be used for curriculum improvement projects.

Projects completed in recent years have provided for new or improved programs in computer education, primary science, career guidance, personal finance and high school language arts.
The Curriculum Steering Committee will meet in early April to review and approve curriculum improvement projects to be done during the coming summer.

Bike-a-thon to raise funds for cancer research

Bike-a-thon co-chairpersons Margaret Nichols and Millie Breeding recently asked south Morrow County residents to participate in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels-for-Life" Bike-a-thon to be held April 14 on Hinton Creek Road starting from the fairgrounds.
Volunteer workers and riders are needed for the Bike-a-thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.
Margaret Nichols said this year's ride is being dedicated to Terry, a leukemia patient at St. Jude. "By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered," Nichols said. "We're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live. We really need bike riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-a-thon successful."

"In the Bike-a-thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-shirt, and those raising $75 will receive a barrel tote bag," said Millie Breeding. Sponsor forms are available in Ione at the Ione School office, Bristow's Market and Rietmann's Hardware; in Heppner at Central Market, Murray's Drug Store, Coast to Coast, and Court St. Market.
