Golf team finishes 3rd

By TRAVIS HYATT
The Heppner boys golf team started out slowly this year finishing in third place out of three teams, with a total of 348 strokes; but it was the first meet and they did come within five strokes of second place, Mac-Hi (343) and nineteen strokes away from first place Riverside (329).

"Our team has a fair amount of experience with seniors Jon Mitchell and Pat Struthers and some promising underclassmen in Dave Green, Kevin Hughes, and Travis Harrison," said coach Duane Neiffer. Those five make up the varsity team.

Jon Mitchell was low man with a gross score of 80. Pat Struthers shot an 84, Dave Green and Kevin Hughes shot a respectable 92, and Harrison chipped in with a 105. The JV boys team only played nine holes and was lead by Ken Curtis (47), Kevin Kenison (49), Keith Kenison and Jack Estberg both with 59, John Kenney (61), and Marion McMillan (67).

"Our girls team is anchored by Ann McLaughlin who has four years experience, Jodi Matison three years; Carla Miles and Dana Reid add one year," said coach Neiffer. The girls came in third place with 156 strokes but were only playing with three players.

Junior Jodi Mattison was low woman with 48, with Ann McLaughlin right behind her (49) and Dana Reid (59). "We expect to do a lot better Thursday," said coach Neiffer.

The team travels to Riverside again April 12.
