

OPEN CLASS SUPERINTENDENTS

DEPARTMENTS AND DIVISIONS

1. Booths 422-7194

DEPARTMENTS AND DIVISIONS

1. Booths

2. Livestock

a. Cattle

b. Goats, Sheep and Wool

c. Swine

3. Poultry and Small Animals

4. Saddle Horse Show

5. Commercial Crops

a. Grain

b. Grass and Hay

c. Commercial Potatoes

6. Fruits and Vegetables

7. Flower Show

8. Home Economics

a. Clothing

b. Needlework

c. Canning

d. Foods

9. Arts, Crafts and Collections

a. Arts

b. Photography

c. Crafts

d. Collectors Corner

e. Miniature Car Races

10. Youth

a. Pet Show

b. Kids and Super Kids

c. Teen Corner

Ruth McCabe 422-7194

Gary Grieb 989-8585

Roger Palmer 676-9730

Eddie Brosnan 676-5881

Irene Anhorn 676-9639

Bill Rawlins 676-9435

Bill Rawlins 676-9435

Bill Rawlins 676-9435

Bill Rawlins 676-9435

Dorothy Warren 989-8102

Ione, Lexington and Heppner Garden Clubs

Marilyn Bergstrom 676-9852

Ruth Bergstrom 676-9717

Bebe Munkers 676-9677

Joyce Hughes 989-8412

Betty Mills 676-5546

Judy Barber 676-5037

Marlene Gray

Harold and Edna Peck 676-5318

Dan McBride

Karen Thompson 676-9770

LaRae Kindle 676-5223

George Currin is Grand Marshall for 1984 Fair & Rodeo

George is the son of Hugh C. and Katie Currin, born in Heppner, Oregon in 1911. George and his three brothers, Hugh, Bob, and Ralph were raised on East Birch Creek near Pilot Rock, Oregon. He attended grade school and high school in Pilot Rock.

George was in the sheep business with his father, Hugh C. Currin in the Pilot Rock area. In 1934, he moved to Little Buttercreek and ran sheep until 1940. He then changed his livestock to cattle.

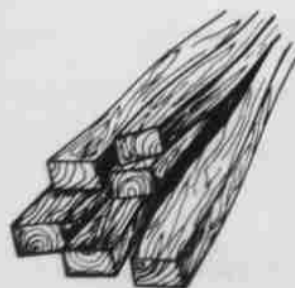

George married Helen Knotts of Pilot Rock in 1935. They have two sons, Ron and Tom, who now operate the cattle business on Little Buttercreek.

George is now retired and spends much of his leisure time attending his grandson's high school and college rodeos. Quite often he can be seen visiting the livestock sales and friends and neighbors.

MORROW COUNTY'S WOOD PRODUCTS MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Welcomes You To The Morrow County

FAIR & RODEO

KINZUA CORPORATION

Manufacturer of Fine Wood Products

Heppner, Oregon