Youngest 4-H entrant wins CowBelles Brown Bag Contest

By BIRDINE TULLIS
 OSU Extension Service
 Morrow County

Every participant in the new CowBelle's Beef Brown Bag Contest knew exactly what he-she was going to do when the contest started.

Each got right down to the business of creating a nutritious beef sandwich and decorating a paper bag to promote beef.

At the end of the half hour allowed, Molly Evans, Irrigon, youngest of the group was proclaimed first place winner and awarded a prize of $12 cash. Molly's creation was prepared on a bagel and included many other nutritious additions. She topped it off with a garnish of radish and parsley. Her decorated bag featured a cartoon cow, plus a brass bell and bandana handkerchief tie. She knew why you should eat beef, too.

Second place winner was Benji Pearson, Heppner, with a brown bag proclaiming "Beautiful Beef Can't Be Beat", and a very nutritious combination of products dressing up her basic beef sandwich.

Taking third honors, Kathleen Brazell, Lexington, chose to build her decorations on "Beef Builds a Better Body" with before and after drawings and slogan.

The contest, new this year, was developed by local CowBelles to promote the use of beef, as well as provide added educational events for 4-H'ers.

CowBelles provide the beef and prizes. 4-H'ers provide the creativity and skills.

Aug. 21 is special day at Heppner Auto Parts

August 21 is indeed a very special day around the Heppner Auto Parts Store.

It probably isn't uncommon for two people in the same shop to have their wedding anniversaries on the same day - but how about all three?

Ted and Trish Toll, Ron and Ginger Bowman, and Bob and Aloha DeSpain all celebrate anniversaries on August 21.

Ted and Ron work for store owners Bob and Aloha.

"They're all on the same day," Bob said but added "not the same year."
