Rietmann — Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rietmann

Lisa Gwen Martin, daughter of Harold and Frieda Martin of Kuna, Idaho and Jerry Lee Rietmann, son of Robert and Betty Rietmann of Ione were united in marriage Saturday, August 18 at 10 a.m.

The Reverend Peter Steven officiated at the double ring ceremony at the United Church of Christ, Pullman, Washington. The ceremony began with Purcell's "Trumpet" played by organist Susan Billin of Pullman. Soloist Phil Lee sang "If" for the wedding couple.

The bride wore a chapel length southern style gown accented by rose lace on the bodice and train with a satin ribbon at the waist. Her fingertip veil with seed pearls was held by a garland of silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink roses amidst lily of the valley and wore a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom.

Nancy Carey of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a soft dusty rose tea length gown trimmed in lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white gardenias.

The groom's Delta Chi Fraternity brother, Ray Barlow of Burley, Idaho served as best man. Fraternity brothers, Sam Yenne and Ernie Yenne also of Burley served as ushers.

A reception in the church social rooms followed the ceremony. The grooms aunts, Marilyn Rietmann of Ione, and Ruby Ann Rohde of Kennewick, Washington served the wedding cake. Punch and coffee were served by Donna Rietmann of Ione, and Kerry Rietmann of Condon. Assisting with gifts and the guest book were the bride's sisters Lori Martin and Tish Martin and brother Steve Martin of Kuna, Idaho.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon coast the couple returned to Moscow, Idaho where both are students at the University of Idaho.

Ganzhorn — Panter

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ganzhorn

Sarena Marie Panter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Panter of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller of Coquille, OR., became the bride of Jackson (Jack) Jay Ganzhorn, son of Cecil Ganzhorn of Albuquerque, New Mexico on August 25 at 1 p.m. The ceremony was read by Dick Bigelow at Western Seminary Chapel in Portland.

Decorations included alter bouquets of rose and pink carnations and gladiolus.

The couple and their attendants faced the congregation during the ceremony while the bride was given in marriage by her father, Ray Panter.

Sarena wore a satin gown trimmed with scalloped lace hemline and a sheer picture-book hat with illusion bow. The dress also had a lace covered bodice and puffed sleeves.

Maid of Honor, Tara Smith, a friend of the bride, wore a rose brocade wrap-around dress with a shawl collar and carried a bouquet of rose, pink and white carnations.

Best Man was Skip Figgins, and David Lampiens and Gary Stevens were ushers.

Averille Panter, the bride's sister sang the wedding song entitled "Make Us One".

The wedding reception was held at the church hall following the ceremony where decorations were centered around the three-tier cake above a fountain of rose colored water. The blown glass cake top had also been used on the bride's grandparents' 50th anniversary cake.

Pouring the punch was Polly Bigelow and Monica Purdy poured the coffee. The groom's sister, Liz Littlefield, and Marilyn Bigelow served the cake.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ganzhorn took a trip to the Oregon coast for their honeymoon. The couple are now residing in Corvallis while the groom attends Oregon State University graduate school.

lone couple celebrates 50th anniversary

Clifford and Wenona McCabe of Clackamas, Oregon will be celebrating their golden wedding anniversary on the island of Hawaii during the first week of October.

Cliff and Wenona were married October 8, 1934 in Stevenson, Washington.
